Mrs. Strom Supported By Flood Of Letters

Rabbi 'Repents' As Council Set To Meet

Letters endorsing Mrs. Anita C. Strom for the San Rafael Board of Education piled up today on the desk of City Clerk W. C. Cornwell, awaiting tonight's city council meeting at which the appointment is to be discussed.

Also, another candidate for the appointment entered the picture. Arnold T. Bertolli, an attorney of 8 Bradcliff Court, wrote the city council asking that he be considered.

Bertolli has been a San Rafael resident for 15 years. He is senior patent attorney for Standard Oil Co. of California, and also has a master's degree in chemistry.

Thirteen letters endorsing Mrs. Strom for the appointment were received by the city clerk, along with postcards of endorsement bearing 11 names.

'CARRIED AWAY'

Robbi Morton Hoffman of Congregation Rodef Sholom, who attacked Mrs. Strom in a letter last Wednesday, wrote the council that he had been "carried away" into "doing the very thing that I thought I was against, namely going to an extreme."

"I have been deeply moved by Mrs. Strom's response to my letter opposing her candidacy for the school board," Rabbi Hoffman wrote. "I have been touched by the genuine hurt she has suffered. I have, in consequence, searched my heart and feel that I am in need of practicing something that I not infrequently preach about, namely repentance . . .

BESIDE POINT

Whatever strong original feelings I had against Mrs. Strom's candidacy are now for me completely beside the point. They are overshadowed by the fact that I was, to my present great regret, carried away by emotions against extremism which were ripening within me just at this time. This resulted in my own letter doing the very thing that I thought I was against, namely going to an extreme: I turned out in fact to be doing

San Salvador Earthquake Fatal To 43

SAN SALVADOR, El Salvador (AP) — A sharp earthquake killed 43 persons and injured about 300 in this Central-American capital early today.

The earthquake, at 4 a.m., destroyed many dwellings and damaged at least 4,000, government officials said.

The quake hit the nighboring towns of San Marcos and Santo Tomas as well as San Salvador.

U.S. Ambassador Raul Castro told the Tucson, Ariz., Daily Citizen by telephone that he understood 100 people were dead as the quake leveled low-income neighborhoods of the capital city.

The quake struck about 4 a.m., Castro said, and caused about $35,000 damage to his official residence.

The hardest-hit areas were in the areas of adobe homes about three miles from the embassy, he said.

Castro, a former Tucson judge, said no Americans on the embassy staff were reported hurt but two nationals were injured.

The new multimillion-dollar airport terminal building was damaged but runways remained operational, Castro said.

He said San Salvador is making preparations for other quakes of lower intensity expected to follow.

Tonight, Castro said, his family and staff "will have to sleep out of doors on cots."

Casualties and damage were heaviest in San Marcos and Santo Tomas, southeast of here,

Johnson Seeks OAS Aid; Another Marine Is Killed

Zone For Refugees Set Up

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (UPI) —A U.S. Marine was killed by sniper fire early today in new U.S. troop movements aimed at enforcing a shaky cease-fire in the Dominican civil war.

It was the fifth confirmed combat death of an American serviceman in the bitter street fighting of the past nine days. One other death related to allied operations occurred when a Navy man fell from a ship. At least 43 other servicemen have been wounded in combat.

The new American casualty came as paratroopers drove three miles across the heart of the city to further pin down armed leftwing civilians in a corner of the new capital. At the same time, Marines extended their "international refuge zone" by three blocks, to Avenida Mexico, where most of Santo Domingo's 22 foreign embassies are located.

The renewed sniping followed the shaky cease-fire ordered in Santo Domingo Saturday night. The action occurred less than two blocks from the beleaguered American Embassy

Sky Diver Dies As Chute Fouls

Student skydiver Loren Dean McCrillis, 38, of 53 Willow Avenue, Fairfax, plunged 3,200 feet to his death in Sonoma County yesterday when his parachute equipment fouled. In Santa Maria a second free faller also died.

McCrillis, who took up the sport two months ago, was doing his 10th jump when the shroud line of his main chute fouled at about 2,800 feet.

Witnesses said he failed to use his emergency 'chute soon enough. Though it opened, it was too late to break his fall. The few moments of hesitation proved fatal.

Sonoma County Deputy Coroner Donald Nortel said McCrillis was killed instantly.

Enthusiastic about his new pastime, McCrillis jumped with the Diablo Sky Divers Club at Schellville Airport. The plane rose to 3,200 feet above the Castagnasso Ranch when he stepped out.

As the apprentice skyman pulled his main ripcord, his floating companions, Joseph Gallow and John Bryant of Petaluma, saw a gaping rip in his 'chute's silk.

McCrillis worked as a construction foreman for his brother, Richard E. McCrillis of San Anselmo, who operates the Diamond Pool Service in San Rafael.

A native of Colorado, he had lived in Fairax 18 months. He was separated from his wife, Mrs. Janet T. McCrillis, who now lives in San Bruno.

Also surviving him are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John D. McCrillis of Sun Valley, Los Angeles County; three sisters, Mrs. Evelyn Tillotson of Denver, Mrs. Dorothy Pryor of Cincinnati and Mrs. Leora Clark of Grenada, Siskiyou County; and another brother, Elton McCrillis of Phoenix, Ariz.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Chapel of the Hills Mortuary, San Anselmo.

A second skydiver was killed two miles north of Santa Maria yesterday when his parachute failed to open in a 7,500 feet jump. He was A/2c Robert J. Stanley, 22, of Medical Lake, Wash. He was on his 91st jump.

Situation Will Be Reviewed

WASHINGTON (UPI)— The United States proposed today that other members of the Organization of American States join in sending peace-keeping forces to the Dominican Republic.

The U.S. proposal was made by Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker at a closed session of the inter-American organization. He proposed that other governments make their military, naval and air forces available to the OAS to assist in carrying out the mission of its five-man peace committee.

The OAS met today to "keep the situation under review" and to receive reports and recommendations from the peace committee. It also decided to keep the U.N. Security Council informed of developments in the Dominican Republic.

President Johnson, who has ordered U.S. armed forces into the Caribbean country to help prevent establishment of another Communist government in the hemisphere, kept in close

Advance Paratroop Group Sent To South Viet Nam

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The advance unit for 3,500 American paratroopers arrived in Saigon today. The balance of the three airborne battalions was expected within a few days.

The paratroopers are the first U.S. Army combat ground unit assigned to Viet Nam. U.S. and Vietnamese officials said they would "increase security at key installations and press the war more effectively."

U.S. officials said they would be stationed at Bien Hoa, a big air base 12 miles northeast of Saigon, and at Vuntay, a coastal city 40 miles southeast of Saigon.

The new arrivals comprise most of the 173rd Airborne Brigade stationed on Okinawa.

U.S. officials said the airborne contingent would bring the total U.S. strength in South Viet Nam to around 36,000 men. There already are 8,500 U.S. combat Marines in South Viet Nam.

Commanded by Brig. Gen. Gen. Ellis W. Williamson, the airborne contingent includes two infantry battalions, one artillery battalion and the equiva-

Stolen Car 'Warehouse' Discovered

A mass "disassembly" line for stolen vehicles was reported today by sheriff's officers following discovery of two stripped pickup trucks and a car in a secluded spot in Mount Tamalpais Statae Park.

Deputies said the vehicles, later identified as stolen from San Francisco, were spotted in the Alice Eastwood Girl Scout camp section of the park. They were parked bumper to bumper, officers said, and parts including drive shafts, transmissions and radios had been removed.

Several of the parts, however, were located in a pile nearby. Officers said the vehicles had been stolen by punching out right ventilator wings and wiring the ignitions.

Deputies said the thieves apparently wore gloves during the thefts and dismantling.

Oakland Artist Wins Award For Sculpture

A 26-year-old Oakland sculptor was the major recipient of the first $1,000 Frank Lloyd Wright Memorial Award given Saturday at a preview of the Marin Museum Assn.-sponsored sculpture exhibit at the Marin County Civic Center.

Sculptor Bruce Beasley was presented a purchase award of $750 for his cast bronze "Inarus," by exhibit judges Peter W. Gygax of University of Oregon and Luis Antonio Sanguino, sculptor of New York and Madrid.

Gygax and Sanguino, who felt the $1,000 prize should be split between two artists, presented an award of excellence of $250 to Anthony Melendo of Oceano for his metal and plastic stabile, "Happiness."

The Marin Museum Medallion, created by Seth Wood of Sausalito, was awarded to Robert Shinn of Sausalito for his carrarra marble, "Bear."

The exhibit, titled "The Growing Edge of California Sculpture," will continue through May from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. weekdays and from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on weekends.

Hanniabal Braces For Flood Crest

QUINCY, Ill. (UPI) — The tireless Mississippi River lapped over 60,000 acres of rich Illinois farmland today and hurled a fourth flood crest at this blufftop city.

Hannibal, Mo., 20 miles south of here, also braced for a new crest. Two downtown blocks already were submerged and floodwaters began to stagnate.

The Mississippi was expected to crest at 24.6 feet tomorrow at Quincy and Hannibal, the last two population centers in the path of the tenacious month-old flood.

Each of the three previous crests here has broken a nearby dike, flooding a total of about 60,000 acres in the Illinois farming counties of Pike, Henderson and Hancock.

"Almost everything that could give way has already broken," an official here said.

Two more dikes were threatened today. Workers labored to fortify a levee protecting Hull, Ill. Most of the town's 500 residents already had evacuated their homes und the remainder prepared to flee if necessary.

A backwater dike at Pleasant Hill, Ill., south of Hannibal was strengthened by volunteers to stem the threat of a break which officials said would inundate five miles of farmland.

Water began lapping at a new 20-inch broad rim atop dikes guarding a rural Illinois area across from Hannibal.

Sightseers complicated flood fighting work in some areas. A woman sightseer fell through a wooden sidewalk in Hannibal and broks her ankle.

Dike workers stood by a long threatened levee at Niota, Ill., about 60 miles north of here, using walkie-talkies to call for help in case of breaks.

Wilson Asks Negotiated End To War In Viet Nam

LONDON (AP) — British Prime Minister Harold Wilson opened the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization's ministerial conference today with a call for "an honorably negotiated settlement" of the war in South Viet Nam.

He appealed for the same sort of settlement of the explosive Indonesian-Malaysian dispute.

"Both situations constitute a serious threat to peace and both urgently need to be ended," the British leader said.

Wilson said the countries of Southeast Asia, once colonial but now independent, "should be left alone to follow their own path toward peace and freedom."

"Independence means more than freedom from British rule or from the rule of any other former colonial power," said Wilson. "It means freedom from aggressive outside interference."

Britain is supporting the new Federation of Malaysia against Indonesia. Wilson pointed out that the British government has more soldiers in Southeast Asia today than any other non-Asian country.

But he said if Malaysia and the Asian members of SEATO told Britain that they no longer needed her help, "nobody would be more pleased than the British government and the British people."

"We must work for negotiated settlements that will bring lasting peace to the area, to Viet Nam, no less than to Malaysia," said Wilson.

'Miss Kansas,' Three Others, Killed In Auto

EMPORIA, Kan. (AP) — The reigning Miss Kansas, her mother and two other persons were killed yesterday in a highway accident nine miles east of Emporia.

The dead:

Margene Savage, 20, of Florence, the "Miss Kansas" of 1964; her mother, Marguerite Savage, 47; James Kaminski, 45, of Emporia, and his wife, Gloria, 43.

The Kaminskis were riding in the Blasche car.

Miss Savage was in a convertible driven by her mother. John Ramsey of the highway patrol said Mrs. Savage was unable to stop when another car made a left turn off U.S. 50 in front of her.

Mrs. Savage's car ran off a shoulder and skidded head-on into the Blasche car.

Blaze Doused; Hymn Resumes

LEWISTON, Idaho (AP) — The congregation of the Lewiston Orchards Methodist Church was in the midst of the third verse of the opening hymn at their 11 o'clock Sunday service when the pastor interrupted the singing.

"The church is on fire. Let's all leave very carefully," he announced.

The congregation filed out, and looked for the fire. The blaze was located in a bird's nest atop a large, 30-foot cross built into the front of the church.

Drunk Flying Problem Suspected

WASHINGTON (AP)—Federal aviation officials fear they may have a bigger drunken flying problem among private pilots than they ever suspected.

The bases for this concern, a House Appropriations subcommittee was told, were the findings of some 50 autopsies conducted on crash victims.

"To our great surprise, there has come out of these autopsies a much more serious drunk flying problem than we understood there to be before," said Najeeb E. Halaby, in testimony March 2 before he resigned as Federal Aviation Agency administrator. The testimony has just been made public.

Halaby stressed that he was talking about private pilots, not airline pilots.

Castro Denounces Landings

Cuban Premier Fidel Castro, conceding that Communists had joined the revolt in the Dominican Republic, has denounced U.S. troop landings there.

Castro, in a Saturday night speech observing May Day on this Communist island, said U.S. involvement in the Dominican civil strife was aimed at "saving Yankee imperialism agents at the moment the Dominican people were going to settle accounts."

He said there was no doube that exile Dominican President Juan Bosch and the rebel leaders were not Communists but that Reds joined the rebellion "because there is no doubt Communists should be fighting imperialists."

Chamber Raises Doubts About War On Poverty

WASHINGTON (AP)—A task force sponsored by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce has questioned some aspects of the federal anti-poverty program.

The group, headed by Erwin D. Canham, editor of the Christian Science Monitor, said it questions whether large - scale economic development programs can provide the aid needed to help people move out of poverty.

It cited specifically the billion-dollar Appalachia program which provides a major road-building program for parts of 11 states.

The group said the funds could be better used in providing vocational-technical education and vocational rehabilitation.

"I could hardly walk afterwards."

The spectacle gave his hosts "immense pleasure," he added.

Selma March Protection Cost Taxpayers $510,000

WASHINGTON (AP) — It cost the Defense Department $510,000 to protect the Selma-to-Montgomery civil rights marchers, the Pentagon said today.

This raised to nearly $13 million the cost of using federal troops and federalized National Guardsmen in five major civil rights crises dating back to Little Rock in 1957.

The Pentagon said the $510,000 figure covered pay and allowances for 1,860 Alabama National Guardsmen called into federal duty, plus transportation and other expenses in connection with measures taken to protect the voting rights march in late March.

The figure did not take into account the pay and allowances for about 1,000 regular Army military policemen who also were used. The Army has taken the position that these men would be drawing such pay and allowances regardless of what duties they were performing.

Also excluded were the expenses involved in use of federal marshals and other resources of the Justice Department.

The Alabama National Guard was federalized from March 20 to March 28.

"THAT MAN FROM RIO"

Clem Miller Honored By New Library

A library of books and documents on civil liberties and civil rights was dedicated Saturday at the Marin County Civic Center in memory of an "effective congressman and an effective idealist," Clem W. Miller.

The Clem Miller memorial library is to be placed in a special section on the county library. It was established by the Marin chapter of the American Civil Liberties Union in memory of the former first district congressman who was killed in a plane crash while campaigning for a second term in October, 1962.

Judge Richard M. Sims Jr. of the District Court of Appeals, heralded Miller as an effective congressman and idealist.

He recalled Miller's record in the 88th congress and his work for establishment of Point Reyes National Seashore.

Those who tread the paths in the park will be forever grateful to him, Sims said.

Miller was recognized by his fellow congressmen for his attempts to find solutions to social problems, Sims told the 150 people attending the dedication in the supervivors' chambers.

In the audience were Miller's five daughters, three of whom flew from their home in Washington, D.C., to be present at the ceremony. The three are Abigail, 16, Claire, 14, and Katharine, 9. His eldest daughter, Amy, had flown from school in Sedonia, Ariz., and Marian, 12, came by bus from school in Hayfork, Trinity County.

Peter H. Behr, chairman of the county board of supervisors, called Miller "a champion of civil rights."

"This library," Behr said, "is a living memorial to him, for great books being read become alive as a part of their readers.

"This library becomes still another weapon of our country's war against pride and prejudice, the misbegotten children of fear and hate, mortal enemies of what the United States of America proclaimed in its very infancy to an unbelieving world, that all men are created equal."

Judge Sims presented a bronze plaque to county librarian Virginia Keating which will be placed in the library.

ITS MEAL TESTED FOR RABIES

Boa Constrictor Dies To Help Safeguard Girl Bitten By Rat

A friendly, docile boa constrictor, resident at the Louise Boyd Natural Science Museum in San Rafael, died last night —a martyr to the cause of safeguarding human health.

Death was due possibly to palpitations of the stomach—an unusual snake ailment. In fact it may be unique.

It was a sad story all around.

It started last Wednesday when student museum worker Leah Van Houten, 16-year-old student at Redwood High School, was bitten by a not-so-friendly rat in one of the cages.

She was treated at a local hospital, but the Marin County Health Department felt a check was desirable to see whether the rat was rabid.

But in the meantime, unbeknown to anyone, the museum animal keeper had fed the rat to the boa constrictor.

The problem, as County Health Officer Dr. Carol B. Albrecht observed, was delicate. A local amateur snake specialist was called up to see if it was possible to get the rat back from the constrictor's stomach.

A rare operation, he replied, but it could be done.

Into the scene came Dr. Brammon of the San Rafael Animal Hospital. He skilfully set about "milking" the snake on Friday.

Sure enough, he managed to coax the reptile to regurgitate the rat. Dead of course. And to make things worse the boa felt none too good either.

Tragedy came last night when the boa expired. The "milking" had been too much for him.

Rabies tests on the dead rat were still under way today.

Campbell Boy Temporarily Granted Aid

Judge Samuel W. Gardiner of Marin Superior Court today approved temporary continuance of $250 monthly support from the estate of restauranteur Wyman Franklin (Bob) Campbell for an alleged illegitimate son, Robert James Campbell, aged 3.

The boy, through his mother, Mary Frances Leonard, 38, of 206 Caledonia Street, Sausalito, seeks an increase to $500 monthly support. However, a stipulation by both the mother and Seibert I. Sefton, San Francisco, executor of Campbell's estate, agreed to the continuance pending determinaiton of the estate's full value.

Judge Gardiner incorporated the stipulation in his order—with Sefton's reservation that the terms in no way are admittance of Campbell's paternity.

The temporary order is retroactive to April 1. Campbell, owner of Bob's Steak House in San Francisco and Bob's of Marin in Corte Madera, died March 5.

BOARD

a disservice to the cause of moderation.

"In the name of fairness and in the desire to be of continued service to the cause of moderation, I willingly retract my letter. I now know how much my words hurt Mrs. Strom and I am pained by the thought that I was so unkind to a fellow human being."

Evidence of a division of opinion among teachers as to the board of education appointment also appeared.

Last week, Albert Gautraud, president of the San Rafael Teachers Assn., wrote the council a letter which, while it named no one, could be intrepreted as opposing appointment of Mrs. Strom.

Also, a petition signed by 93 teachers was filed opposing appointment of Mrs. Strom.

Robert Krohn, vice president of the San Rafael Teachers Assn., disclosed today he had written city council members saying that Gautraud did not speak for the association in his letter.

"The San Rafael Teachers Assn. letter was written by Mr. Gautraud without polling the members and officers, and represented his personal opinion," Krohn wrote.

"In the opinion of many of the teachers, the petition opposing Mrs. Strom was very unprofessional in nature and extremely ill-advised . . . The single most important fact concerning this petition is that 75 per cent did not sign and that many of those who did sign it don't know Mrs. Strom but were swayed by the frantic, unsound charges leveled against her."

Krohn added that he is acquainted with Mrs. Strom and feels her appointment "would result in improved education for our children, the only concern we have as parents and teachers."

Besides the pro-Strom letters, the city clerk today received two letters advocating appointment of Laurence B. Thomas, one advocating appointment of Mrs. Gladys C. Gilliland, and one advocating appointment of Mrs. Elizabeth Douglas.

The appointment to the board of education is for two years, to fill out the term of C. Paul Bettini, who was elected mayor on April 12.

The council must appoint this week or the choice falls to the board of education. Mayor Bettini indicated he may call a recess during tonight's council meeting, after members of the audience have been heard, to discuss the appointment behind closed doors before returning for a vote.

The appointment is scheduled to follow opening of bids on painting Fire Station No. 2 and public hearings on three planning matters at the meeting beginning at 8 p.m.

Stopped Auto Given Blame As Three Hurt

Three persons were injured in a two-car collision on Highway 101 in Novato yesterday which California Highway Patrolmen blamed to a stopped vehicle.

Edwin Saxer of St. Marie, Idaho, was driving north about seven-tenths of a mile north of Ignacio overpass at 12:55 p.m. He slowed and stopped on the highway. A car driven by William L. Barker, 26, of San Francisco, and one driven by Dolores I. Fox, 45, of 136 Ilena Circle, San Rafael, swerving to avoid the slowed auto, collided.

Michael V. Clark, a passenger with Barker, was held in San Francisco General Hospital today for observation of possible concussion, after treatment at Novato General Hospital.

Also in San Francisco General Hospital was another passenger, Fay L. Barker, 24, of San Francisco, who suffered leg and foot cuts. James Fox, 52, a passenger in the second car, was treated at Novato General Hospital for a lip cut.

Highway patrolmen ticketed Saxon for stopping his car without a proper hand signal. Saxen said he had engine trouble.

Cars Reported Found, Stolen

One car was reported stolen and another recovered yesterday in Sausalito.

William D. Vosse of 130 Peralta Avenue, Mill Valley, reported theft of his 1963 Buick convertible from 120 South Street at 5:30 p.m.

Police recovered a 1963 Jaguar reported stolen Saturday from Bel Aire Shopping Center while its owner, Russell R. O'Neal was getting a hair cut, at 7:20 p.m. yesterday at 170 Bulkley Avenue. O'Neal lives at 28 Holstein Road, San Anselmo.

Tam Valley Fire Guts Playhouse

Fire of undetermined origin gutted a children's playhouse the size of a garage at the home of Edward Mitchell, 416 Maple Avenue, Tamalpais Valley, last evening.

Destroyed in the blaze were books and playthings plus a couch, tables and chairs and a heater. Firemen were told that children were playing in the play house prior to the fire.

Sniper Shoots El Cerrito Man

EL CERRITO (AP) — Police said today that a young El Cerrito husband was shot three times in the back yesterday by a sniper who fired through a window as the victim lay in bed.

James Douglas Boyum, 22, was hit in the back by all three slugs. He was in satisfactory condition today in Contra Costa County Hospital in Martinez.

The bullets missed Boyum's 15-year-old wife, Bonnie, who slept beside him.

Police Lt. Robert Whittaker said no motive could be determined in the sniper shooting.

JOHNSON

touch with the developments there.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk and other administration officials planned to give the House Foreign Affairs Committee a closed, afternoon briefing on the Dominican situation.

House GOP Leader Rep. Gerald R. Ford, R-Mich., said "the overwhelming majority of Republicans in Congress stand solidly behind the President's declared purpose of preventing the establishment of another Communist regime in the Americas."

In a prepared address to a AFL-CIO conference Ford said that by acting fast President Johnson "has avoided a repetition of the debacle of indecision at the Bay of Pigs."

Johnson told the nation Sunday night he had ordered an additional 4,500 troops to the Dominican Republic, bringing the total to 14,000, to protect U.S. citizens and other foreign nationals, distribute food and medicine and aid in sanitation measures.

But he also said in his televised speech that "the American nations cannot, must not, and will not permit the establishment of another Communist government in the Western Hemisphere."

Reedy was asked today if the President's statement reflected a new policy to use troops to resist a Communist takeover in any Latin American country. Reedy replied that he did not want to go beyond Johnson's statement.

The White House aide also declined to comment on a remark by former President Juan Bosch of the Dominican Republic that the revolution had been won until the United States intervened.

"We have stated clearly what we have done and why we have done it," Reedy said.

Asked for White House reaction to the fact that only one television network carried the President's speech live, Reedy said the statement was made available for the networks and that it was up to them to decide whether to carry it.

Johnson's half-hour report followed a long afternoon and evening of conferences with his top military and diplomatic advisers, including Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara, and congressional leaders of both parties.

The day before, in an all-day session of the Organization of American States here, his tough Dominican policy had come under fire from a number of Latin American nations, angered at what they termed "unilaterial intervention."

The Mexican ambassador put it bluntly when he said the U.S. Marine and paratrooper landings had revived "painful memories" of the gunboat diplomacy of an earlier time. There was also some skepticism expressed privately over the scale of Communist involvement in the Dominican revolt.

But Johnson, in his review of the week's events, said he had no choice last Wednesday but to order the first U.S. troops into the Dominican capital of Santo Domingo.

SANTO

where the sentry was on advanced post patrol duty.

The paratroop push across the Duarte Bridge, linking Santo Domingo to the San Isidro Airbase, expanded to a corridor of U.S. forces through the rebel-infested old city. It sealed off armed leftwing civilians in a small corner of old Santo Domingo. The move was made without casualties.

While the Army troops moved into the American Embassy zone, a Marine company in armored troop carriers moved three blocks away from the embassy to a point on Avenida Mexico, where most of the other 21 foreign embassies are located.

A high American official said the combined military push had the full approval of the peace mission sent into Santo Domingo yesterday by the Organization of American States.

Planners Ask City-County Zoning Work

The Marin County Planning Commission today called for more cooperation from cities in making findings on planning matters near their boundaries.

This came when the commission continued two matters requiring architectural supervision near Mill Valley. Both are to be considered by Mill Valley Architectural Advisory Committee tomorrow.

"They (the cities) need to accomodate themselves better than that," Commissioner Margaret Azevedo said.

Planning Director B. D. Dobbs said arrangements are being made to notify cities earlier of county planning matters near city boundaries.

Continued were architectural approval of a proposed service garage on the north side of Tamalpais Junction, asked by Frank Gelardi, and architectural approval of a four-unit apartment proposed near Miller Avenue and west of Gomez Way by Manuel Gomez. They will be taken up again May 17.

The commission approved a tentative map by Hoytt Enterprises, Inc., for 110 townhouses on 14.3 acres at Miller Creek Road and Marinwood Avenue.

Shooting Stops At India Border

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — An unofficial cease-fire prevailed in the Rann of Kutch today, but India and Pakistan had more than 100,000 troops stretched along their frontiers.

No formal truce has been announced. It appeared, however, that both sides were content to let the guns remain silent until monsoon rains flood the barren desert a couple of weeks from now, making further fighting impossible.

India and Pakistan have been hostile neighbors since gaining their independence from Britain eight years ago.

Belvedere Council To Hear NWP Request

The Belvedere city council tonight will be asked to back the Northwestern Pacific Railroad plan to abandon its lines and railroad yard on the Tiburon Peninsula.

Councilmen meeting at 8 p.m. at the Community hall will have before them a proposed legal petition from the railroad which asks the Interstate Commerce Commission to rehear the company's proposal for abandonment. The Tiburon city council last Monday voted 3-2 to favor abandonment.

lent of one battalion of various support units.

Stationed in "defensive roles at these installations," a U.S. spokesman said, the American paratroopers "will free Vietnamese combat troops for offensive operations."

U.S. officials announced that three new Army helicopter companies of 260 men and 25 helicopters arrived over the weekend.

After being idled Saturday by unfavorable weather, U.S. jets yesterday resumed air strikes against Communist North Viet Nam.

U.S. Navy jets blasted a railroad siding and three boxcars 100 miles south of Hanoi. Groundfire was light and all the planes returned safely to their carrier.

A U.S. official said there were no air raids over North Viet Nam today, presumably because of bad weather.

U.S. officials said Air Force Capt. Ronald E. Storz of Portsmouth, N.H., disappeared in a light observation plane last Wednesday and a search for him has been abandoned.

Doctor Reports Theft Of Bag

Dr. Wendell Howard Butler, 11 Manor Road, Kentfield, reported theft of a medical bag containing about $20 worth of narcotics, sheriff's officers said today.

The bag, taken from the doctor's unlocked car at a Ross General Hospital parking lot last Thursday, was looted and later found in San Rafael Canal near Canal Street, officers added.

D. M. Moreau, Palo Alto, told officers a $210 movie camera was stolen from his car parked in Point Reyes National Seashore last week, officers also reported today.

Girl Injured As Auto Leaves Winding Road

Graciett Cavalho, 16, of San Pablo suffered facial cuts at 11:05 a.m. yesterday when the car in which she was riding went into a ditch, hit a tree, then rolled down an embankment off Shoreline Highway, two miles north of Bolinas.

The driver, Telmo T. Almedia Y Cavalho, 19, of San Pablo, was uninjured. Miss Cavalho was treated at Marin General Hospital.

QUAKE

where the quake apparently centered.

The government ordered the two towns evacuated as further shocks were felt later in the day. One strong tremor shook the region at 9:02 a.m. and another at noon.

In Pasadena Dr. Charles Richter of the California Institute of Technology said his instruments recorded the quake at 3:08:23 and again at 3:13:50 (PDT).

Richter said the quake registered magnitude of 6.4 here.

Filling Station Turned Down

A proposed service station on Merrydale Road in San Rafael Meadows was turned down by a 6 to 1 vote of the Marin County Planning commission today.

Commissioner Harry Heifetz was the lone holdout in favor of granting rezoning to permit the Wilshire Oil Co. station.

Letters of protest were submitted by residents of the area, who pointed out that most of the lots along Merrydale are occupied by residences.

Wife Of Doctor Asks Separation

Dr. Edward S. Vanderhoof, member of the Marin General Hospital emergency staff, is being sued for separate maintenance by his wife, Dorothy.

Mrs. Vanderhoof alleges cruelty in her Marin Superior Court suit. She asks custody of their three minor children, a share in community property including the family home on Upper West Road, Ross and "reasonable" alimony and child support.

They were wed Aug. 14, 1941, in Minneapolis, Minn., and separated last Monday.

Boy Bitten By Dog

Mike Eckhard, 10, of 177 West Blithedale Avenue, Mill Valley, was bitten on the left arm by a large dog owned by Mrs. Morton McMichael of 126 Corte Madera Avenue, Mill Valley police were told Saturday.

She told sheriff's officers the machines were pried open in the unlocked room either Thursday or Friday.

Education Board Member On Council Agenda Tonight

Selection of a board of education member highlights the agenda for tonight's meeting of the San Rafael City Council at 8 o'clock in city hall.

The council is to select a replacement for one of its own number—Mayor C. Paul Bettini, who stepped from school board to the mayoralty in last months election.

Bids for painting Fire Station No. 2 are to be opened. Public hearings will be held on rezoning for multiple dwellings at 418-20 Belle Avenue, and on two appeals from planning commission decisions.

William H. Morrison is appealing the commission's turndown of a permit for a 146-unit apartment complex on Channing Way, with access by a long, steep driveway. George Dray and Peter Van Soest are appealing refusal by the commission to allow substitution of a berm for the previously agreed curb and gutter along several lots on Terrace Avenue.

The council will have before it traffic committee recommendations calling for a non-parking zone on the north side of Third Street between Irwin and Mary streets, and for stop signs on Del Ganado Road at Duran Drive and on Hoag Street at Mill Street.

Don't Like Egypt

BONN, Germany (AP) — A German rocket scientist working in Egypt said he and 17 other Germans working with him would like to return to West Germany if their security could be assured. Prof. Wolfgang Pilz, whose work in Egypt long has angered Israel, told a television interviewer Friday he and his friends had been subjected to crimes and slander and it seemed inadvisable to return to an atmosphere of insecurity.

Rackets Taken

Pirkko McCaig of 45 Tamal Vista Drive, Corte Madera, reported to police that someone stole two tennis rackets from his unlocked car Saturday night while it was parked in front of his home.

Vodka Clobbers Little Nippers

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Reaction was frantic yesterday when Michael Castellino and twins Karter and Karen Hartman, all 5, were found sprawled senseless in the Hartman backyard.

The babysitter told police she'd last seen them playing quietly. As the unconscious trio were sped to a hospital, detective work uncovered the culprit in the Hartman basement—a gaily colored fifth of vodka.

Police said the children had consumed a pint among them, then staggered outside. Their stomachs were pumped out.

Burglars Take Family's Linen

The Robert Carson family, now in England, will find themselves short of linen when they arrive home at 320 Margarita Drive, San Rafael.

Thieves last week raided the house and took sheets, pillow cases, bath mats, towels and a brass lamp worth a total of $128. Sheriff's officers said entry was gained by forcing a bedroom exit door.

The theft was reported Friday by Thomas C. O'Coneel of the same address. He said the Carsons are due back in two months.

Cambodia-U.S. Tie Cut Claimed

PARIS (AP) — The French radio said today in a broadcast from a correspondent in Phnom Penh that Cambodia has broken off diplomatic relations with the United States.

The corresondent said no official reasons were given. He speculated, however, that they include a series of frontier incidents along the South Vietnamese border which Cambodia blames largely on the United States.

The French correspondent said he understands that despite the diplomatic break consular relations would be maintained.

Defense Begins In Sit-In Trial

BERKELEY (UPI) — The trial of University of California "free speech' sit-ins resumed today as the defense began what was expected to be three weeks of testimony in their behalf.

Scheduled to appear as defense witnesses were senior university administrators who were served with subpoenas in March. They will be subject to examination by a team of attorneys headed by Malcolm Burnstein.

About 30 defense witnesses were scheduled to be called, including Dean of Students Katherine Towle, Dean of Men Arleigh Williams, Vice President Earl C. Bolton and Public Affairs Officer Richard P. Hafner Jr.

Also under subpoena to appear for the defense was former Chancellor Dr. Edward Strong.

Judge Rupert Crittensen is hearing the case in Municipal Court.

Nearly 800 persons were arrested during the sit-in at Sproul Hall last December, but only 155 persons are on trial presently. Evidence collected during this trial will be used when the remaining demonstrators are tried later.

Girls' Lips Cut In Auto Mishap

Two small girls received cut lips when they fell against the instrument board of an auto in which they were riding Saturday in Novato, police reported.

Ralph Besser, 46, of 1113 Fourth Street, Novato, told police he stopped his westbound car on Grant Avenue at Fourth Street to let a car into the lane of traffic. He was hit from the rear by a car driven by Salvator Moreci, 27, of 620 Manuel Drive, Novato, police said.

Deborah Ann Moreci, 6, and Michelle Lyn Moreci, 4, were treated at Novato Hospital. Moreci was cited for following too closely and not having a driver's license in his possession.

Secretary Of State Is Ruled Power In Cuba Travel Ban

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court ruled today the secretary of state has the constitutional power to bar American citizens from traveling to Cuba.

Chief Justice Earl Warren delivered the 6-3 decision. There were three separate dissents.

Said Warren for the majority: "The questions for decision are whether the secretary of state is staturily authorized to refuse to validate the passports stitutionally permissible. Cuba, and, if he is, whether the exercise of that authority is constitutionally permissible.

"We answer both questions in the affirmative."

The court ruled on an appeal by Louis Zemel, a Middlefield, Conn., ski resort operator. He wanted to go to Cuba, he said, to become a better - informed citizen.

The State Department refused permission for the trip under a travel ban imposed in January 1916. Zemel sued, but a special U.S. District Court in New Haven ruled against him in a 2-1 vote.

U.S. Increasing Research Drive On Meningitis

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army is planning to increase its meningitis research program as a result of an epidemic at Fort Ord last fall, Rep. Glen Lipscomb (R-Calif.), said today.

Lipscomb, ranking Republican member of the House defense appropriations subcommittee, said he was assured during recent budget hearings that basic combat training was resumed at Fort Ord last month only after thorough study and consultation with medical specialists at leading universities.

The increased research program, Lipscomb said, will seek to learn more about the cause and spread of the disease in an effort to devise means of preventing meningitis epidemics and improve treatment.

Ginsberg Given Prague 'Crown'

PRAGUE (AP) — American poet Allan Ginsberg was crowned "King of Majales" by Prague's younger set in a beatnik May Day weekend celebration that set this Communist capital on its heels.

The Red regime successfully launched a new "loose leash" policy after three previous years had brought violent May Day clashes between police and youth.

The youths also crowned a pretty college girl "Miss Majales," but the biggest ovation went to Ginsberg, for years the idol of Prague's beat generation. He was in town to accept the honor.

Rackets Taken

Pirkko McCaig of 45 Tamal Vista Drive, Corte Madera, reported to police that someone stole two tennis rackets from his unlocked car Saturday night while it was parked in front of his home.

Vodka Clobbers Little Nippers

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Reaction was frantic yesterday when Michael Castellino and twins Karter and Karen Hartman, all 5, were found sprawled senseless in the Hartman backyard.

The babysitter told police she'd last seen them playing quietly. As the unconscious trio were sped to a hospital, detective work uncovered the culprit in the Hartman basement—a gaily colored fifth of vodka.

Police said the children had consumed a pint among them, then staggered outside. Their stomachs were pumped out.

Burglars Take Family's Linen

The Robert Carson family, now in England, will find themselves short of linen when they arrive home at 320 Margarita Drive, San Rafael.

Thieves last week raided the house and took sheets, pillow cases, bath mats, towels and a brass lamp worth a total of $128. Sheriff's officers said entry was gained by forcing a bedroom exit door.

The theft was reported Friday by Thomas C. O'Coneel of the same address. He said the Carsons are due back in two months.

Three-fourths of Mexico's nighways are paved.

Cambodia-U.S. Tie Cut Claimed

PARIS (AP) — The French radio said today in a broadcast from a correspondent in Phnom Penh that Cambodia has broken off diplomatic relations with the United States.

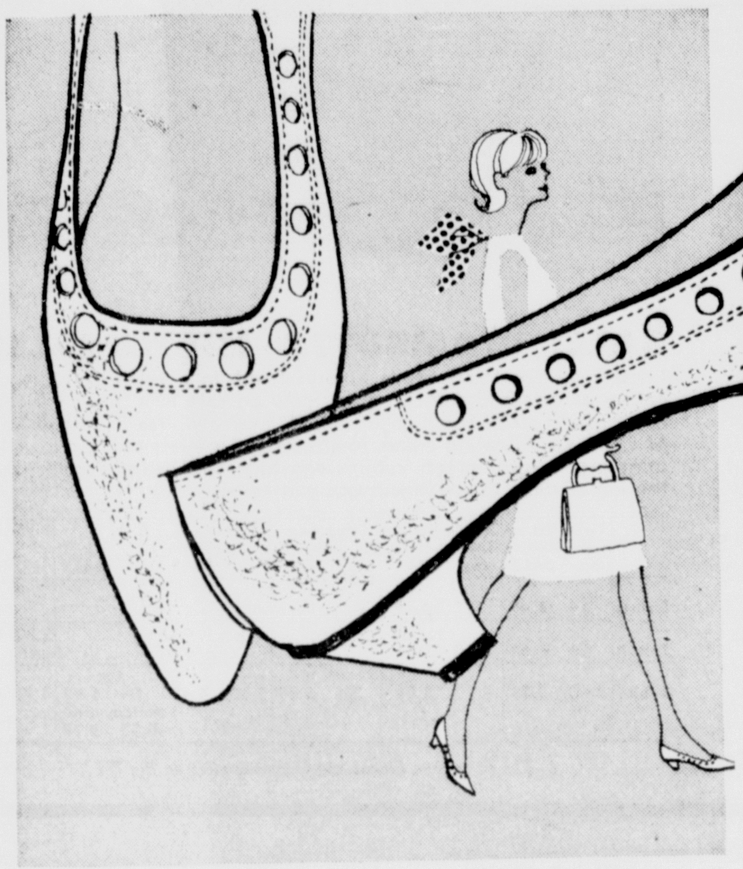

The corresondent said no official reasons were given. He speculated, however, that they include a series of frontier incidents along the South Vietnamese border which Cambodia blames largely on the United States.

The French correspondent said he understands that despite the diplomatic break consular relations would be maintained.

Defense Begins In Sit-In Trial

BERKELEY (UPI) — The trial of University of California "free speech' sit-ins resumed today as the defense began what was expected to be three weeks of testimony in their behalf.

Scheduled to appear as defense witnesses were senior university administrators who were served with subpoenas in March. They will be subject to examination by a team of attorneys headed by Malcolm Burnstein.

About 30 defense witnesses were scheduled to be called, including Dean of Students Katherine Towle, Dean of Men Arleigh Williams, Vice President Earl C. Bolton and Public Affairs Officer Richard P. Hafner Jr.

Also under subpoena to appear for the defense was former Chancellor Dr. Edward Strong.

Judge Rupert Crittensen is hearing the case in Municipal Court.

Nearly 800 persons were arrested during the sit-in at Sproul Hall last December, but only 155 persons are on trial presently. Evidence collected during this trial will be used when the remaining demonstrators are tried later.

Secretary Of State Is Ruled Power In Cuba Travel Ban

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court ruled today the secretary of state has the constitutional power to bar American citizens from traveling to Cuba.

Chief Justice Earl Warren delivered the 6-3 decision. There were three separate dissents.

Said Warren for the majority: "The questions for decision are whether the secretary of state is staturily authorized to refuse to validate the passports stitutionally permissible. Cuba, and, if he is, whether the exercise of that authority is constitutionally permissible.

"We answer both questions in the affirmative."

The court ruled on an appeal by Louis Zemel, a Middlefield, Conn., ski resort operator. He wanted to go to Cuba, he said, to become a better - informed citizen.

The State Department refused permission for the trip under a travel ban imposed in January 1916. Zemel sued, but a special U.S. District Court in New Haven ruled against him in a 2-1 vote.

South Viet Nam covers 65,948 square miles.

U.S. Increasing Research Drive On Meningitis

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army is planning to increase its meningitis research program as a result of an epidemic at Fort Ord last fall, Rep. Glen Lipscomb (R-Calif.), said today.

Lipscomb, ranking Republican member of the House defense appropriations subcommittee, said he was assured during recent budget hearings that basic combat training was resumed at Fort Ord last month only after thorough study and consultation with medical specialists at leading universities.

The increased research program, Lipscomb said, will seek to learn more about the cause and spread of the disease in an effort to devise means of preventing meningitis epidemics and improve treatment.

Ginsberg Given Prague 'Crown'

PRAGUE (AP) — American poet Allan Ginsberg was crowned "King of Majales" by Prague's younger set in a beatnik May Day weekend celebration that set this Communist capital on its heels.

The Red regime successfully launched a new "loose leash" policy after three previous years had brought violent May Day clashes between police and youth.

The youths also crowned a pretty college girl "Miss Majales," but the biggest ovation went to Ginsberg, for years the idol of Prague's beat generation. He was in town to accept the honor.

STANDING OVATION—Actor Ronald Reagan receives applause as he addresses the second annual convention of the United Republicans of California Saturday at Sacramento. He said he would run for governor next year if enough Republicans want him. (UPI Telephoto)

United Republicans Pick Reagan Man As Leader

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The United Republicans of California pointed to next year's campaign today with a new "practical" look and a new state chairman who backs Ronald Reagan for governor.

Frederic H. Nagel Jr., 57, a Susanville rancher and a former band leader, accepted the post with a promise to make the volunteer group a "well-rounded" organization, friendly to all segments of the party.

His election yesterday climaxed a three-day convention at which leaders worked to wipe out the ultra-conservative image tacked on UROC by Republican critics.

Nagel went into the race with overwhelming support against his opponent, Richard Davis of La Habra. With the roll call more than halfway finished and the count 580-67 for Nagel, delegates agreed to halt the vote and give him the job.

The United Republicans, said Nagel, "are coming of age. We're more realistic. We're more practical."

He said UROC had become "a rank and file, bread and butter organization" while another GOP volunteer group, the California Republican Assembly, "now leans farther to the right than UROC."

Ironically, The United Republicans were formed two years ago by dissident CRA members who said the group was too moderate. Later, the Republican Assembly moved into the hands of those considered more conservative.

The Republican picture, said Nagel, "seems to have juggled around."

Nagel wasn't hesitant about announcing his support for the gubernatorial candidacy of actor Reagan, the convention's keynoter Saturday. Reagan has come close to saying he's in the race, but has made no formal declaration.

"Frankly, I like Ronnie Reagan," said Nagel. He emphasized he was speaking for himself and noted UROC won't endorse anyone until next year.

But in the event another possible candidate, U.S. Sen. Thomas Kuchel, wins the 1966 GOP primary, Nagel said he'll support him in the general election.

FRED NAGLE
'We're More Realistic'

"I'm a team man," he said. "Barry Goldwater supported the ticket and I'll support the ticket."

His view wasn't shared by a delegate who nominated Eugene Dodd of Sunland for state chairman. Dodd withdrew before balloting began.

But in nominating him, Phil Benson of Santa Susana criticized the convention's speeches as "being more concerned with public images than principles."

"We need a man who can stand up to Tom Kuchel and say, 'No sir, I cannot support your candidacy for governor,'" he said.

A proposal to boost dues from $2 to $5 a year died after a two hour parliamentary wrangle that ended when the convention was adjourned for a lack of a quorum. In the dispute, delegates didn't have time to act on a resolution dealing with voting rights.

Nagel succeeded Bruce V. Reagan, a former assemblyman from Pasadena.

Mental Illness Called Major Health Problem

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Calling mental illness California's major health problem, Gov. Brown today urged statewide observance of Mental Health Week.

The week - long observance, which started Saturday, will feature open houses and receptions at state hospitals and clinics.

GOP Assembly Told Critics Honor Group

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Cyril Stevenson Jr. of Berkeley, president of the California Republican Assembly, cautioned CRA directors this weekend not to be too sensitive about criticism.

"I don't think we should be ashamed or upset because a few people attack the CRA," he said Saturday.

"It has become a badge of honor," he told the 100 directors "to be attacked by the press and called extreme or far right."

He said it was the CRA's duty "to the people to call the shots."

Yesterday, the directors criticized U. S. Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz in the state farm labor situation.

The group said Wirtz had injured U. S. - Mexican relations and asked that President Johnson fire him. Wirtz recently authorized limited use of Mexican braceros to harvest some crops.

The CRA directors said this was using the braceros "as though they were workhorses or cattle" and asked that the United States apologize to Mexico.

The program that allowed Mexican labor into California to harvest crops expired last Dec. 31 and was not renewed by Congress.

Whist Party Slated

Bolinas beach improvement club members will meet at 7 p.m. Saturday at the Bolinas Mesa clubhouse for supper followed by a whist party. The club did not meet last Saturday because of the proposed whist party, said Mrs. C. E. Froehlich, secretary.

Young Demos Want Viet Raids Stopped

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The California Federation of Young Democrats ended its annual convention yesterday and called for the United States to stop bombing raids on North Viet Nam and to seek a 90 day truce supervised by the United Nations.

The group also questioned the use of more than 14,000 American troops to protect 1,000 American nationals in Dominican Republic and said the action "casts grave doubts as to the real motive of U.S. intervention."

The resolution on Viet Nam however, applauded President Johnson's call for "unconditional negotiations" and his plans for economic aid to the area.

On the conflict in the Dominican Republic, delegates voiced support for the regime of ousted President Juan D. Bosch and said he, Bosch, should be returned to power in the embattled country.

The policy statement said that "failure to do so at this time will make our entire foreign policy of 'self - determination' a complete hypocrisy and do immeasurable harm to future American international relations."

A last-minute effort to align the group with the newly formed Free Speech Union on the Berkeley campus of the University of California failed.

Beeman was replaced as head of the group Saturday when Los Angeles attorney Henry Waxman, 25, was elected. He ran without opposition.

Wasman said he is determined to see that the "liberal tradition" of CFYD continued during his leadership of the group.

Other officers elected at the three-day convention attended by 350 delegates included vice presidents James Stanberry of Pasadena, a student at the University of California; Mile Bennett, a Van Nuys high school teacher; John McGrew, a student at University of California, and Mike Kadin, a student from Santa Ana. # McCABE SAYS HE'LL RUN AGAIN IN '66

George E. McCabe, Santa Rosa educator who ran against Rep. Don H. Clausen for Congress last year, says he will try again next year, unless other Democrats with electability and capability decide to run.

McCabe made the statements at the First Congressional District Democratic caucus in Eureka Saturday. He introduced a resolution urging any registered Democrat to throw his or her hat in the ring.

The Democrats approved a resolution opposing establishment of a Redwood National Park until an "in depth" socio-economic study of its effects and of alternate sites and alternate plans can be made.

Aleutian Earth Tremor Recorded

Ryall said the Aleutian shocks registered for an hour and a half, starting at about 1:54 a.m.

The original cost of the Golden Gate Bridge was $35,500,000.

Commissioners Overrule Zone Administrator

The Marin County Planning Commission today reversed a ruling of the zoning administrator, saying that William Von Lackum could go ahead and extend a shop in a proposed home 12 feet into a 30-foot front yard setback at 1 Juniper Avenue in San Geronimo.

It was the second appeal of a zoning administrator ruling befor the commissionand the first in which the zoning administrator was reversed.

The commission unanimously denied the application of Fred Roemer and others for apartment zoning at Ethel and Evergreen avenues, Tamalpais Valley, now zoned for single family dwellings.

The commission granted architectural approval for Albert Storer's planned rug cleaning and sales store on the west side of Highway 101 in San Rafael Meadows, adjacent to the Three-R School.

Meany Blasts States Barring Union Shops

WASHINGTON (AP) — AFL-CIO President George Meany said today that states with laws barring union shop contracts — including President Johnson's home state of Texas — are "the most backward in the nation."

Meany, speaking to a legislative conference of the Labor Federations Building and Construction Trades Departments, predicted the section of federal labor law that authorizes such statutes will be repealed in the present session of Congress.

Nineteen states now have laws which prohibit union shop contracts that require all workers to join the union to keep their job.

Congressional sources have said hearings on the repeal of the law will start within the next week or two. President Johnson is expected to send a labor message to Congress including among other things his support for the repeal of the legislation.

In addition to Texas, other states with such laws are: Arkansas, Arizona, Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Iowa, Kansas, Mississippi, North Carolina, North Dakota, Nevada, Nebraska, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Utah, Virginia, and Wyoming.

3 Flee To West As Another Dies

BERLIN (AP)— Three East German teen-agers escaped to West Berlin during the weekend, but a fourth man was shot in his bid for freedom.

West Berlin police said the youths, 15 and 16, tore through the barbed-wire obstacles in northern Berlin late Saturday.

The shooting of an East German man, estimated to be about 30, also occurred Saturday night.

Gas Draining Leads To Charges

Three youths were charged with petty theft and curfew violation by Belvedere police after they were seen draining gas from filling station hoses Friday night.

The boys, a 17-year-old and 16-year-old from Mill Valley and a 16-year-old from San Rafael, were seen at 11:05 p.m. as they drained remaining gas from pump hoses at the R&S Chevron Station on Tiburon Boulevard. Curfew is 11 p.m. in Belvedere.

U.S. Supports State Try To Remove Private Rails

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The federal government has sided with the state in an attempt to remove tracks of a private railroad from land to be flooded by Oroville Dam.

U. S. Atty. Cecil F. Poole last week filed a petition in federal court asking that the Georgia - Pacific Company's Feather River Railroad be thrown off Plumas National Forest property.

The petition charges the company, has refused to vacate 3.17 miles of public lands, although its use permit was canceled formally in October, 1960.

The Department of Water Resources, building the dam, has been battling with the railroad since 1962 over whether it should be relocated or eliminated in favor of a trucking operation. The state wants the latter, claiming it would cost $9 million to relocate a railroad worth only $230,000.

Daly City Driver Draws Fine Of $220

Hurt Cat Causes Highway Death

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A car killed the cat, but curiosity killed Joseph C. Falbo.

Highway patrolmen said Falbo 49, of Sacramento, walked into the middle of Marconi Avenue late last night to investigate a strange noise.

He found an injured cat, barely alive after being hit by a car.

As Falbo was stopping to get a closer look, he was struck by a pickup truck driven by Leo N. Swansborough, 77, also of Sacramento.

Falbo was dead on arrival at Sacramento County Hospital.

Injured Belvedere Boy Still 'Critical'

Davis has been unconscious since Friday.

Strange Indian Carvings Preserved For Posterity

WASHINGTON (AP) — More than 600 strange carvings on a California mountain where a long-vanished Indian tribe once lived were ordered today preserved for posterity.

The Department of the Interior announced that its Bureau of Land Management will bar any mineral leasing or other resource programs which might damage the carvings on Rodman Mountain in the Owens Valley, north of Bishop.

The site once was populated by Paiute Indians. But the first Paiutes to greet white men said the did not know the origin of the carvings, depicting people, animals and geometric symbols.

"There is art and history in those carvings," said Bureau Director Charles H. Stoddard.

"By retaining these invaluable sites in public ownership, we can preserve them for tomorrow's scholars and visitors."

Car Slams Tree, Kills 2 Youths

The old grave sites, including Bidwell Bar Cemetery, Enterprise Cemetery and six family plots, will be unundated when the dam is completed.

William E. Warne, director of the Department of WATER Resources which arranged for the transfer, said at ceremonies at the new cemetery: "I dedicate Pioneer Cemetery to the memory of the past and the promise of the future, to the builders of California of the last century and next."

Lodge Pays Pope Surprise Visit

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Henry Cabot Lodge, President Johnson's envoy on the Viet Nam question, conferred today with Pope Paul VI in a surprise papal audience that may have involved major diplomatic action.

It also was clearly more than a courtesy visit. Lodge's wife came to Rome with him from New Delhi Saturday, but she did not attend the audience, as she probably would have if business — diplomacy — had not been involved.

Officials declined to give details of the talks.

There had been no advance word of Lodge's visit.

Johnson Seems Weary On Video Appearance

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has been through five wearing days because of the Dominican crisis and some of his television audience last night thought he showed it. Others thought he looked comparatively good in view of what he has gone through.

Some viewers described his face as shadowed and lined and showing signs of weariness. Others thought there was not much difference from the past.

Perhaps there were some shadows, because the television lights had been softened. In his last television appearance to discuss the Dominican situation the lights had bothered him. So they were rearranged and softened last night. Technicians had said this might produce shadows.

While some observers thought the speech was rambling, the one major rough spot involved the President's inability to find a place in his notes. He had been using teleprompter until it came to the point for him to switch to something he had decided to insert at the last moment. He hadn't been turning the pages of his notes, so he fumbled and repeated a bit.

The President had spent three hours talking with congressional leaders — doing most of the talking himself — and if he was weary, this might have been a factor along with the hours he put in during the day with his staff.

Mrs. Johnson Visits Scene Of Childhood

JEFFERSON, Tex. (AP) — Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson went back for a look at scenes of her own childhood this weekend after putting finishing touches to the restoration of the President's boyhood home.

Busy for months with the Johnson City retoration, the First Lady turned tourist to come here to see stately Southern homes restored to their splendor of a century ago.

"I wouldn't take a pretty for it," was her strictly Southern comment on the sentimental afternoon visit yesterday.

Jefferson, population now 3,082, is 17 miles from Mrs. Johnson's birthplace in Karnack, Tex., and she came here to high school 40 years ago. In its heyday in the 1860s, the city was a booming steamboat stop. It is trying to recapture its past as a tourist attraction.

Equal Employment Rights San Francisco Meet Set

WASHINGTON UPI)— Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey announced yesterday that major employers from 11 western states would meet in San Francisco June 10 for a conference on equal employment opportunity.

Humphrey, chairman of President Johnson's Committee on Equal Employment Opportunity, named Rudolph A. Peterson, president of the Bank of America, as honorary chairman of the conference.

Norman E. Nicholson, vice president of Kaiser Industries Corp., was named general chairman.

The meeting will be sponsored by the President's Committee and the University of California's Institute of Industrial Relations.

"Through these seminars, we are gathering additional support for our national program on equal opportunity," Humphrey said. "We ... know that these conferences help impress on people the good sound economic sense of equal opportunity programs."

Attendance is expected from California, Oregon, Washington, Alaska, Idaho, Montana, Utah, Nevada, Colorado, Wyoming, New Mexico and Arizona.

New Vaccine Stops Fifth Flu Virus

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Next winter's vaccine will provide protection against a fifth strain of influenza, according to Surgeon General Luther L. Terry.

The new strain the vaccine will protect against is an Asian variety isolated in Formosa last year, Terry announced during the weekend. It is an A-2 strain, closely related to the one which gave Americans trouble during the past season.

Rebellion Ends

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — The half-month old rebellion at Paksane by Laotian army troops loyal to exiled Gen. Phoumi Nosaven appeared to have collapsed Saturday with report that its leader had fled to neighboring Thailand.

Lost Glasses Lead To Mills College Site

BENICIA (AP) — Because 10-year-old Anne von Colditz of nearby Lafayette wears glasses, the birthplace of Mills College in Benicia has been appropriately marked.

College officials yesterday marked the spot where the Young Ladies Seminary was founded in 1852.

Anne accidentally threw away her glasses at a picnic on the spot last year.

Searching for the glasses, Anne discovered an old bronze plaque — buried in grass — marking the spot where the seminary had stood.

Anne's mother, Mrs. Herbert von Colditz, president of the National Mills Alumnae Association, revived interest in remarking the site.

A new plaque was made and dedicated yesterday by college officials, the Native Sons, State Advisory Committee on Historical Landmarks and the California Parks Commission.

Fighter Plane Sets Record

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new American fighter—the YF-12A—streaked through the sky Saturday, and President Johnson said it set two world speed records.

The previous bests, he said, had been set by a Soviet D-166 jet.

The President said the YF-12A exceeded 2,000 miles per hour on a straight course, and hit 1,688 miles an hour on a closed course (round trip).

The records were set on two flights made by different crews at Edwards Air Force Base, Calif.

Dramatic Readings Feature 'Different' Chorale Concert

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Saturday night's spring concert of the Winifred Baker Chorale at Angelico Hall was very different from previous ones in that it consisted entirely of contemporary music and featured dramatic readings.

Major work was the world premiere of "The Victory of Zorabable," a dramatic cantata by the young San Francisco composer Kirke Mechem, who was present and received an ovation at the conclusion of the program.

In the contemporary idiom, the cantata told the story of the contest of three young men—sung by tenor Edward Jameson, baritone Byron Jones and bass Douglas Stobie — to name the mightiest power on earth.

One of the most interesting aspects of the Cantata was the way in which the music expressed the character of the answers: "Wine," in a humorous vein; "The King," in a pompous and grandiose style; "Women" in a seductive sound, and "Truth" with epic nobility.

Jones and Stobie sang their parts well and Jameson as the victor, Zorabable, naming "Truth" did some of the best singing we have heard from him.

Mezzo soprano Margery Tede as the narrator was in top form.

The chorus as a whole was most impressive in this work with its sonority enhanced by a 16-piece chamber orchestra.

In seven songs by Leonard Bernstein, one sung after each of the dramatic excerpts from G. B. Shaws "St. Joan," the chorus was effective in sustained pianissimo singing with a remarkably fine boy soprano sextet adding a liturgical touch.

The three readers from the festival theater players—Barbara Demaree, Robert Cowell and Robert Atkinson — were skilful in characterization and vocally well trained.

As for the chorus' presentation of the U.S. premiere of "So, you want to write a fugue" by concert pianist Glenn Gould, the very nature of fugal writing makes understanding the words set to such a form almost impossible. Thereby much of the wit was lost.

Pianist Margery Bagshaw is due special credit for her consistently fine work as accompanist.

Youth Orchestra Amazes By Sounding Like Adults

Once again Hugo Rinaldi and the Marin Youth Orchestra amazed an audience last night at Angelico Hall with their ability in their best moments to sound like an adult orchestra—and a good one.

The young people played their best in those numbers in which the orchestra was the star performer, that is, in Syphony No. 2 by Vittorio Giannini and Overture to "Il Signor Bruschino."

Written with vivid orchestral color — especially giving the woodwinds a chance to shine as they did nowhere else in the program — and thrilling dynamics, the symphony was most effective in its allegro energico and allegro movements. The large brasses were perhaps a bit overpowering.

The contrary was true in tempo in Antonio Vivaldi's Concerto for Two Violins featuring Eden Vaning and Bud Oakley.

In the last half of the program, flutist David Wilkinson in "Night Soliloquy" by Kent Kennon and pianist Claudia Jacobs in the allegro movement of Beethoven's Piano Concerto No. 1 showed a maturity of musicianship far beyond their years. David's fluent technique and exquisite tone made this minor work a true gem and a high point of the evening. Claudia's playing was notable for its rhythm, clarity of touch and expressive sensitivity.

The program opened with Leon V. Metcalf's "Minuet and Trio" and "Hoedown" played by the workshop strings, directed by Lucien Mitchell. It is good to know that these elementary school youngsters are being well trained to take their places eventually in the youth orchestra.—M.S.

White House Saves Date For Wedding

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — They got Pfc. Donald Tanski to the church on time, but it took some help from U.S. Sen. Stephen M. Young and the White House.

Tanski is stationed at Fort Polk, La., and he got the bad news Tuesday that because of the Dominican crisis all leaves had been canceled.

It made no difference to the Army that Tanski was supposed to marry Rose Marie Mazula here Saturday.

Members of the family sent an appeal to Young, President Johnson and Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara.

Young notified the family Wednesday that he had arranged a three-day leave for the 22-year-old Tanski.

The White House did Young one better, the family reported, by calling the next day to say a 10-day leave had been arranged. A White House aide called, the family said.

Dollar's Value Hiked By 'Ears'

Treasury Department agents today are investigating the upgrading of a $1 bill by using eight "ears" from a $10 bill, Mill Valley police said.

The bill was presented to the Bank of America in Mill Valley Friday afternoon by an unaware Mill Valley merchant to whom it had been "passed."

Falsification of the bill was discovered by a bank cashier when she started to pay out the $10 bill to another customer and caught her fingernail on a corner, said Jay Smalridge, assistant cashier.

Eight "10" numbers from $10 bills, including the scroll design around the numbers, had been carefully cut out and glued to the $1 bill to simulate the larger sum.

Consulate Bomber Sought In Canada

MONTREAL (UPI)—Montreal police today were searching for several persons in connection with the May Day bombing of the U.S. consulate here, which has been described as a "political act."

Lt. Rolland Perron, head of Montreal's crack social security squad said: "We're pretty sure that the person or persons responsible was demonstrating against the consulate for political reasons, not because of any personal grudge."

The bombing was the work of an amateur, according to police.

"By the way the bomb was rigged" it was apparent "they didn't know how to handle explosives," said one officer.

More than 10 pounds of dynamite was used in the bomb. It blast out 78 windows of the consulate, buckled a floor and tore six doors off their hinges. The explosion caused additional damage to other buildings nearby.

The U.S. consul-general, Richard H. Hawkins, said he had received a telephone threat some time ago advising him the building would be bombed, and expressing anger at the U.S. on the policies in Viet Nam.

Canada's external affairs minister, Paul Martin expressed the nation's formal apologies to U.S. ambassador to Canada, Walton W. Butterworth.

Wirtz Blamed For Losses Seen In Strawberry Crop

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Employment Director Albert Tieburg says "tremendous losses" are in store for the Salinas Valley strawberry crop this year due to a lack of laborers, and he put the blame on Labor Secretary Willard Wirtz.

Tieburg made a quick tour Friday of the 2,000-acre Salinas strawberry growers' fields and called the situation there "a wasteful, needless disaster." He said only 900 acres has been picked.

"They were just loaded with berries and already more than half of them were rotten." Tieburg said, "I'm sure this is typical in the Salinas area."

"They needed 3,000 workers and they had 300. It just makes you sick to see this kind of waste. No matter how many pickers they get now its too late to prevent tremendous losses."

Asked who was to blame, Tieburg replied, "The secretary of labor is to blame."

The labor shortage is the result of the lapse of the Mexican bracero labor import law last December, and the failure of drives to recruit help from the domestic labor force.

Tieburg said the problem was caused by Wirtz's refusal to allow foreign workers, chiefly the braceros, to work in the fields under provisions of the U.S. immigration law that allow temporary visas for purposes of work.

Tieburg said Wirtz's belated approval last week of 1,500 braceros for California farm fields was too little, too late.

He said about 1,000 of them would go to the Salinas area, where here is also 35,000 acres of lettuce to be harvested soon.

"Those 1,000 Mexican nationals won't even be visible when they get there," he said. "The growers are going to ask for additional foreign workers, I understand. I understand there will be a hearing May 12 in Salinas on the request."

Asked for his analysis of the secretary's position, Tieburg said, "I can't look into the man's head. I'm sure he thinks he's doing the right thing. The secretary has to be convinced he's doing great economic harm out here." Tieburg said some processing workers may get so little work this summer that they won't qualify for unemployment insurance.

He checked into a motel.

Then he went to Oakland police to report his gun, $40 and two cameras valued at $180 stolen from his car while he was registering.

Morgan said the sign decorating the front of the motel made it worse. It read:

"Welcome Peace Officers."

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters.

'BAFFLEMENT'

Students' Mental Illness Decried

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The first peacetime generation of Americans to face compulsory military service also faces unprecedented mental health difficulties, a noted New York educator said today.

"They answer the call not unwillingly but with a certain attitude of bafflement," said Dr. Samuel B. Gould, president of the 58-campus New York State University.

Dr. Gould addressed some 5,000 nurses, physicians, educators and health officials at the opening session of the National League for Nursing biennial convention.

Today's young people, Dr. Gould said, "are simply sickened or appalled by what they see us, their elders, do and say when we cynically accept as an incontrovertible fact that we must continue to fight bigger and bigger wars and by so doing expect to solve the world's ills."

Military service adds stresses by forcing postponement of careers, graduate study, financial stability and marriage, Dr. Gould reminded his audience.

"To neglect the mental health of students is certainly as reprehensible as to neglect their reading or arithmetical abilities," the educator declared.

"Every college student of ability who founders upon the rocks of mental disorder is an unnecessary loss to us, a loss we can ill afford."

Counterfeit Ring Hit By Secret Service

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Secret Service agents said today they had smashed a counterfeiting ring that made $315,000 in $20 bills.

Agents said Hayward police Friday night arrested Charles L. Bell, 30, a Portland printer, and John K. Kearney, 23, Hermosa Beach, after they tried to pass a phony bill at a department store.

Phony bills first began showing up in the Bay Area last Thursday. Agents issued descriptions of the bills to stores and a clerk recognized one of the $20 bills.

Agents said two other men, Gerald Barnett, 25, and Charles Collins, 25, were also arrested. A suitcase stuffed with $100,000 in counterfeit $20 bills was allegedly found in Collins' motel room.

Officers believe Bell printed the money in his print shop.

Sisters Told Their Place In Classroom

IPSWICH, Mass. (AP) — Richard Cardinal Cushing has told about 1,000 Sisters of Notre Dame that the nuns place is in the classroom — not marching in street demonstrations.

Cardinal Cushing made no reference to Southern civil rights demonstrations in which nuns took part.

The cardinal, in his second public appearance since undergoing surgery last February, took part yesterday in dedication of a statue of blessed Julie Billiart, French founder of the Sisters of Notre Dame order.

He urged the nuns to do their part toward canonization of blessed Julie "and by that I don't mean carrying placards. I don't think you'll find in the story of Julie Billiart's life where she went out on the highways and byways."

KLANSMAN ON TRIAL—Collie Leroy Wilkins arrives for trial at Haynesville, Ala., today. He is the first of three Ku Klux Klansmen to be tried on the charge of killing civil rights worker Mrs. Viola Liuzzo. (AP Wirephoto)

Civil Rights Murder Klansman Trial Opens

HAYNEVILLE, Ala. (UPI)—The trial of a Ku Klux Klansman on charges of murdering Detroit civil rights worker Mrs. Viola Liuzzo got under way today with the defense predicting an acquittal.

"I believe the outcome will be in our favor," said Klan attorney Matt Murphy before entering the courtroom of 2nd Circuit Judge T. Werth Thagard.

A 70-man panel, including one elderly Negro, was summoned for the trial of 21-year-old Collie Leroy Wilkins.

The jury that will actually hear the case will be picked from the panel. Selection of the jury is expected to take most of the day.

The Lowndes County Circuit Court convened at 9 a.m. CST but the court spent an hour on routine business. Wilkins' trial got under way at 10:04 a.m. (CST).

The trial was under way only a few minutes when the judge recessed to discuss in chambers with attorney the pre-trial motions filed by Murphy.

Shortly before the recess Murphy disclosed the names of 18 defense witnesses he said would appear during the trial. Among those named were FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover and President Johnson.

Prosecutor Arthur S. Gamble Jr. has not stated whether he will seek the death penalty in the trial. The tall, handsome solicitor, will be seeking the first conviction of a white person for a southern racial killing.

The other two klansmen, scheduled to go on trial later, are William O. Eaton, 41, and Eugene Thomas, 42.

Police Gain Return Of Stolen Gems

Men's and women's jewelry valued at $4,000, stolen from the locked trunk of a Sausalito real estate broker Mar. 9, has been recovered by Sausalito police in San Francisco.

The gems were received by police officer Herbert Smith of Sausalito from Richard W. McDermott of San Francisco, Smith said today. They were reported stolen from the locked trunk of the car of Harry A. Swayze while he and his wife were moving into a new apartment at 100 South Street.

McDermott is being prosecuted by San Francisco police on theft charges and is on bail. No charges has been made against him by Sausalito police.

Smith said the jewelry was handed over to him at a San Francisco rendezvous after McDermott told police he had the gems.

Swayze valued total jewelry stolen at $4,160, Smith said he has yet to talk to the Swayzes to learn whether all of the jewelry has been returned.

Fires Checked For Arson In San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Three fires broke out almost simultaneously in San Francisco's Haight - Ashbury district today. Police said they suspected arson.

"The fires were too coincidental," said Sgt. Frank Egger of the arson squad.

Five buildings were damaged, four firemen hospitalized, dozens of residents routed and two-thirds of the city's fire fighting fleet battled the blazes.

The first fire, at 1:27 a.m. and the second call as firemen fought the first blaze. The third fire broke out less than 20 minutes after the first.

All the blazes began under rear steps or in dark alleys, "areas accessible to a firebug," said arson Inspector Earl Grimm.

Vandals Smear Paint In School Gymnasium

Vallecito School at 50 Nova Albion Way, vandalized on several weekends during the last two months, was mopping up today from its most recent attack.

Saturday night vandals broke a window of the gymnasium, painted swastikas and obscenities on walls and lockers, and poured the remainder of their paint over a large rock in front of the school.

Dixie School District Supt. Dennie B. Willis estimated cleanup will cost $500.

Principal Earl Thomson said in the past two months his school has been plastered with paint, had screens ripped, windows broken and fences torn down.

He dated the vandalism from the day he ruled the school off limits, during after-school hours, for Terra Linda High students.

Thomason, though he does not believe the vandalism to be the work of his own students, arranged to have his teachers check the hands of all their students for traces of paint.

He also asked all parents in the area to recall whether their children, if they were out Saturday night, had paint on their hands yesterday morning.

Looking at a swatsika painted on one of the school's doors, Thomason shook his head and said:

"We've got a real sick one on our hands."

Hundreds Flee Oahu Flooding

HONOLULU (UPI)—Torrents of rain triggered floods on the windward side of Oahu today, sending hundreds of residents fleeing the Kahaluu Valley area.

No deaths were reported. One person was hospitalized from overexposure.

The Weather Bureau reported that almost seven inches of rain had fallen on the northeastern slopes of the island. Today the forecast was for more rain as a tropical storm swept in from the Pacific.

Police said the flooding was among the worst in recent years. They estimated that damage would exceed the Feb. 4 floods which killed two persons and caused more than $300,000 damage.

Hawaiian National Guard units helped move families from the flooded areas. Police said 95 per cent of the residents in Kahaluu Valley, across the mountains from Honolulu, had left their homes.

Several bridges along the coastal highway were reported demolished or under water. Landslides were hampering other rescue attempts, officials said.

Robert Blake Green, 20, of 15 G Street, Apt. 1, San Rafael, was arrested Saturday after he allegedly broke his wife's wrist by slamming a car door on her arm following a quarrel.

He was booked for assault with a deadly weapon. Bail was set at $3,500.

Patrolman Richard A. Douglas was called to the home at 11:55 a.m. Saturday by Green's mother-in-law, Mrs. Norma J. Rupert of Forest Knolls, who said there had been a fight between him and his 18-year-old wife, Patricia Joan.

Mrs. Rupert said Green intentionally closed a car door on her daughter's arm. She was treated at San Rafael General Hospital for a broken wrist.

Green said his parents-in-law were calling to take them out to a barbecue but he refused to let his wife go because the house needed cleaning. He claimed that when he closed the door he did not realize her hand was sticking out.

Texas Helping U.S. Fend Off Junkyard Gap

WASHINGTON (AP) — Texas is no longer the nation's biggest state, but its roads and highways have the most junkyards.

The figure according to a Commerce Department survey: 1,602.

The survey was released by the White House Saturday, and was taken after President Johnson, a Texan, declared: "I want to make sure that the America we see from these major highways is a beautiful America."

The survey also disclosed that all states are making plans to clean up the view from the road.

Cows Worry About Social Standing

BERKELEY (AP) — Cows worry about social status in the herd, says a University of California professor of animal husbandry. But they can get help, he adds.

Prof. Kenneth A. Wagnon said yesterday in a report on his studies of the university's breeding herd:

"Age, weight, aggressiveness, agility and timidity are important factors that influence a cow's social rank in the herd."

The herd's self-feeder would accommodate eight cows at a time, but, he said, rarely more than four fed at once. The dominant cows kept the timid ones away, he found.

Less aggressive cattle preferred to avoid trouble by waiting to feed — sometimes up to two hours — until the dominant ones had their fill.

These social problems concern growers, Wagnon said, because they prevent some cattle from gaining weight.

Wagnon said he found that grouping cattle according to age overcame bovine frustrations and produced happier cows with an equal chance at the feeder.

Soldiers' Tax Refund Speeded

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government has set up a plan to speed income tax refunds to military personnel who served in Viet Nam during 1964.

Thousands of servicemen paid taxes on military pay which Johnson recently ruled was at least partially tax exempt.

The White House announced today that taxpayers who served in Viet Nam in 1964 and have already filed returns may claim refunds by subitting amended returns for refund claims.

To speed processing of the refunds, amended returns should be marked at the top of the form: "Amended — Combat Zone."

Safeway In Strawberry To Open Wednesday

Safeway Stores, Inc. will open its new store in Strawberry Town and Country Village, Highway 101 and Belvedere Drive, Alto, at 9 a.m. Wednesday.

The new market has 22,500 square feet of floor space and is the focal point of a shopping center which has been under construction several months by Williams Brothers Construction Co. The center is a development of Town and Country Village, Palo Alto.

The store features six checkout points and a customer service booth where checks may be cashed, empty bottles returned, money orders purchased and floor polishers and rug cleaning equipment rented. # Marin Yachts Dominate Parade

Marin County yacht clubs, with Loch Lomond YC leading the way, had their boats all gussied up and powered and sailed their way to most of the awards in the gala parade that kicked off the yachting season on San Francisco Bay yesterday.

The Loch Lomond club of San Rafael ran off with 8 of 12 power division awards. First place went to Fred Manley's 50-foot Barnicle which was painted battleship gray with a Navy-type 007 number on the bow. Titled "Barnicle Fights Back," it looked like a warship with cannons firing blank ammunition and had an oversized radar antenna on the mast and the crew dressed in "His Majesty's Ship" Pinafore uniforms.

In the sailing division, winner was Dr. G. G. Pouteau and his 52-foot sloop Leda, representing the Corinthian YC of Tiburon. His theme was "It Pays to Advertise," and the Leda was designed as Noah's Ark, with cardboard cutouts of various zoo inhabitants.

Spectators lined the shores everywhere to witness the fantastic scene as more than a thousand boats paraded through the waters of the bay. It started at 11:30 a.m. with the power boats leading the way, followed by the sailboats with their canvases billowing in the winds that swept across the bay.

Because of a hefty westerly wind, the boats were pushed to 4 knots per hour and the parade was over by 1 p.m., but then the fun just began for many of the nautical lovers whe flocked to their respective clubs to party it up for the rest of the day.

One of the highlights of the festivities was provided by the Corinthian YC. It was the blessing of the boats by members of the clergy aboard the "Frances" of Stockton, berthed near the Corinthian at Tiburon harbor. Boats from the north headed for the parade were blessed as they passed, and the

Family Man 'Mac' Hero For Giants

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Two troubled National League teams meet tonight under Missouri skies with mottled records and modest victory streaks behind them.

The San Francisco Giants, who salvaged a single triumph in a four-game series with the Los Angeles Dodgers, carry an eighth-place status and an 8-10 record into Busch Stadium.

And the St. Louis Cardinals, champions of the 1964 World Series, finally have struggled out of the second division into fifth place with an 8-8 mark.

While the Cards were sweeping a doubleheader yesterday from the nine-place Pittsburgh Pirates, Willie McCovey was batting the Giants past the Los Angeles Dodgers 4-2 in 10 innings.

That was the same score by which the Dodgers triumphed Saturday night in their third straight over the Giants. But Tommy Davis broke his ankle in an unimpeded slide into second base, probably hurting Los Angeles more than a loss would have.

McCovey's first homer yesterday was a two-run shot into dead center field almost caught by Willie Davis. It came in the seventh off southpaw Claude Osteen and was the third round-tripper the left - handed McCovey has stroked off fellow wrong-siders.

McCovey wasn't supposed to start. But Orlando Cepeda felt his leg wouldn't stand up under three consecutive playdays and decided to sit out.

Starting pitcher Jack Sanford wasn't supposed to open at his position, either. But Herman Franks wanted to save Ron Herbel for the first St. Louis contest to oppose lefty Curt Simmons.

Sanford gave up three singles in the last of the ninth as the Dodgers tied the score 2-2.

But McCovey picked on Bob Miller's first offering of the 10th and hooked it into the left-center field stands. The Giants added another run and reliever Frank Linzy preserved the victory that knocked Los Angeles out of first place.

"I'm a family man with responsibilities now," said McCovey afterwards. "I've got to think of my wife and daughter."

Thinking about his off - season acquisitions apparently has given a boost to McCovey, who has five homers embellishing his .362 batting average. It also stops him from thinking about his aching 13-D's.

"The shoes don't have a thing to do with my hitting," said McCovey when asked about the special spikes he wears to protect his feet. "They don't swing the bat.

"Most of last season I was in pain. And it's not all gone. But I can accept it and now that I'm off to a pretty good start, the pain is easier to take."

Franks, in pain around the region of his bullpen, heard the news that left-hander Masanori Murakami arrives in San Francisco tomorrow. Franks wore a dramatic facial expression interpreted as, "I'll believe it when I see it."

Sanford, in picking up his second victory in three decisions, also was happy about his first nine-inning stint in one year and his first triumph over the Dodgers in two years.

San Rafael Wins Prep Swim Title

San Rafael swimmers, varsity and lightweights alike, took all the honors Saturday at the Marin Athletic League championships held in the Tamalpais High School pool in Mill Valley.

The Bulldogs, coached by Larry Lack, a young man who likes to win—and usually does—won varsity competition with 83 points to 53½ for Terra Linda and 52½ for Tam. The Class B swimmers of San Rafael scored 84 points to 60 for Terra Linda and 45 for Tam.

Five new records were set and one tied in varsity swimming and four new standards were established by the lightweights.

Jim Allen of San Rafael broke two of his own varsity league records, swimming the 200-yard freestyle in 1:52.2 and the 100 free in 50.4, and teammate Tom Knopf broke his own record in the 100-yeard butterfly, clipping more than three seconds off his old mark with a 54.6 clocking.

PALMER SNAPS YEAR-LONG DROUGHT

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — It developed into something less than a rout, but golfer Arnold Palmer was quite satisfied with his narrow victory in the 13th annual $75,000 Tournament of Champions.

The end of the tournament yesterday came when Palmer posted a one-under-par 71 and a lead that had mounted to seven strokes dwindled to two at the finish.

Winds up to 35 miles an hour swept over the Desert Inn Country Club course as the largest gallery in the history of the event, 11,275, hung on to watch the dramatic windup.

Palmer's total score was 277 and second place went to Chi Chi Rodriguez, who had a final-round 70 for 279.

It was the first victory for Palmer since the Oklahoma City Open May 18, 1964, and gave Arnie a distinction few people can enjoy. He left Las Vegas richer than when he came—$14,000, in fact.

Palmer headed today, along with most of his fellow pros, for the $100,000 Colonial National Invitational at Ft. Worth. Three years ago Palmer won the Las Vegas tournament and also the Colonial. Arnie has no objection to repeating history.

The 120-pound Rodriguez went on a birdie binge, bettering par on the final four holes.

"Man, you finish pretty fast," Palmer said to Chi Chi.

"I learned that from you," replied Rodriguez.

Doug Sanders had a 72 for 281 and third place.

Sam Snead, a youngish 52, and Australian Kel Nagle, 44, the two oldest players in the tournament, each shot a 70 and tied at 283 for fourth place.

Jack Nicklaus, who had hoped to win the event for the third straight year, finished worse than he started. He had a first-round 74 and a final 78 for 290.

"I just got started bad and never could get my game going," Nicklaus explained. He will pass up the Colonial, flying instead to his home in Columbus, Ohio, where his wife is expecting their third child. Nicklaus admitted he has been apprehensive because the baby is a week overdue.

Palmer agreed that an eagle three on the 509-yard 10th hole was probably the clincher. A 30-yard shot with a wedge did the trick. It put him eight shots in front of Sanders and seven ahead of Rodriguez at that point.

Palmer, whose woes the past year were blamed primarily on his putting, said he was delighted that he did not 3-putt a green in the four rounds. He hadn't been able to do this since he won the 1964 Masters championship.

Reports On Trout Opener

Lakes Lagunitas and Bon Tempe of the Marin Municipal Water District and Rodeo Lagoon at Fort Cronkhite provided best results for anglers on the opening day of the trout season Saturday while Nicasio Lake, slow for the opener, is expected to provide excellent angling beginning tomorrow.

That was the word today from Game Warden Al Giddings who also reported that of the thousands of anglers fishing in Marin, not one citation for a Fish and Game violation was issued.

Giddings estimated about 7,000 fish were caught in each of the Lagunitas and Bon Tempe lakes. They were stocked with 10,000 each by the State Department of Fish and Game two weeks ago. Bon Tempe, stocked with 3,000 at the same time, also produced many limits.

NO APPETITE

Nicasio Lake was stocked with 10,000 catchable-sized trout only last Thursday, which didn't give the fish much time to work up an appetite by Saturday's opening day. Wardens checked about 115 fishermen Saturday morning and found only two trout had been caught by 11 a.m. The planted Rainbows, however, should be hungry by tomorrow and will start biting, Giddings said.

Papermill Creek produced some limits, but an average of five or six fish for the 60 anglers who were interviewed by wardens. All fish were small-about six inches.

The Department of Fish and Game is expected to plant more fish in Lagunitas, Bon Tempe and Rodeo Lagoon this week.

Brisk winds made waters rough and discouraged many of the anglers on Saturday morning.

JACK BORKOWSKI
Masters winner

Airman Is Marin Masters Champion

Jack Borkowski, a member of the United States Air Force and part time desk man at Country Club Bowl, San Rafael, went through the fourth annual Marin Masters Bowling Tournament undefeated to emerge as the champ of 1965.

Borkowski shot series scores of 568, 690, 672, 647 and 631 for a very fine average of 205 a game over the 15-game route. The tourney was held Saturday night and yesterday afternoon at Country Club.

Borkowski, of San Rafael, had the two top series of the tourney —672 and 647. High game of the tourney was rolled by Phil Dorr, a 266.

Jack already has the Marin County title in the scratch all events and is also the current doubles champ, along with Lou Eastland, also a member of the Country Club staff.

In the final match of the head-to-head double elimination tourney, Phil Wallace, with one defeat, faced Borkowski. Jack came from behind to win the final game 214 to 176 which gave him the series 631 to 614 and the 1965 championship.

Prior to the finals Saturday night, Dick Treadway beat Frank Wilson in the rolloff to break a qualifying tie for the 16th spot in the tourney. But Wilson got to compete anyway when qualifier Walt Silva cancelled because of illness. Frank responded by finishing in third place.

Complete results of the tourney:

Defending Champion Advances In Novato

George Scherba opened defense of his Indian Valley Men's Golf Club championship yesterday by defeating Frank Campagna one up at the Novato course.

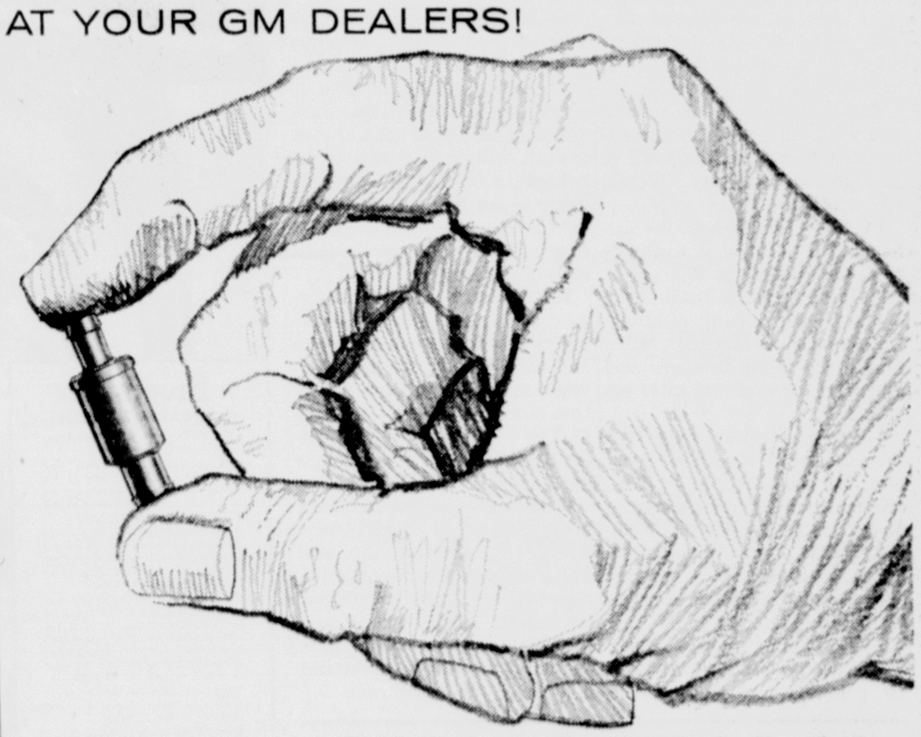

Other first round matches in the championship flight saw Bob Brossier down Bob Capehart, one up and John Kleinman defeat Joe Mestos 4 and 3. Glen Dickson, Eric Baker, Bob Hachmyer, Al Randig and Byron Dickson all drew first round byes in the championship flight.

Second round in all four flights resumes next Sunday.

Paul O'Pizzi of Novato fired a 69 to beat Al Peron by one stroke yesterday in the Marin County Club's golf sweepstakes. Bill King placed third with a 71.

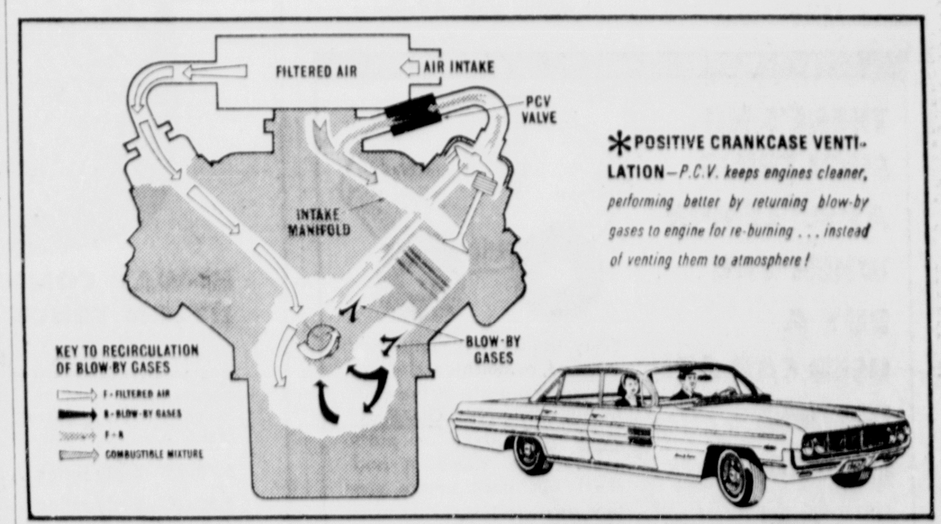

On Saturday at Marin Ed Donohue carded an 88-18—70 to win medal play action. Paul Buchholz and the father-son combination of Sil and Joe DeMaestri tried for runner-up honors at 73. Their gross cards were 80 for Buchholz, 90 for Sil DeMaestri and 88 for Joe DeMaestri, the former major league baseball star.

SMALL PART DOES A BIG JOB!

This little part plays a big role in cleaner engines and cleaner air. It's the heart of your car's Positive Crankcase Ventilation system — designed and developed by General Motors to help reduce air pollution. Since 1961, all new California vehicles have been equipped with P.C.V. or similar systems. For best results, regular crankcase ventilation system inspection is recommended, and the P.C.V. valve should be serviced or replaced when necessary. If you own a pre-'61 GM car or truck not yet equipped with P.C.V., you and your community are not fully benefiting from recent engineering progress in air pollution control. Get P.C.V. installed quickly, economically and right by Guardian Maintenance experts at your GM dealers.

Who Ever Had The Gall To Call The Giants Pennant Contenders

CONNOLLY

Quit wondering about the poor, unlucky Giant ball club. If you don't know what's the matter with them, it's an insult to your own baseball judgment. There are so many things wrong, you begin to wonder who ever had the right, or gall, to call 'em pennant contenders.

Strangely, it is the pitchers who are getting the blame, when as a matter of fact the ball club isn't scoring runs comparable with the number of hits they regularly gather. That would indicate a lack of clutch hitting.

The Giants have a lot of pitchers but knowing how to handle them seems the big problem. So far, (and it's early yet) Herman Franks, new manager, hasn't convinced any of his boosters that he's a genius. He's made a few blunders, like letting 'em stay in the game too long, removing them too early, and allowing his staff of relief pitchers to go stale on the bench for want of work. Those, by the way, are considered managerial mistakes that only time will heal. When the "be nice to your teammate attitude" subsides, the Giant skipper will discover he has to "ride and drive" his players harder.

SO MANY of the young Giant players are over-rated that it is going to take awhile and quite a bit of deflating to bring 'em back to a realization they are engaged in a tight fisted, hard-boiled, wicked 1965 pennant race.

The sneak attack of the Japanese baseball owners on the validity of Masanori Murakami's contract with the Giants has been blown all out of proportion to its real importance. When Al Stanek and Dick Estelle, young Giant southpaws, were sent back to the farm club at Tacoma for more seasoning, the Giant manager knew he had stripped himself of all but one lefthanded pitcher. So why weep over spilled milk?

This week Murakami returns and we'll be anxious to learn if he is another Rube Marquard or just another publicity "hopped up" southpaw.

IN REFLECTING on the disappointing play of the Giants so far it adds up as follows:

1—It's time the ball club, from stem to stern, quits strutting. Outside of Juan Marichal, Willie Mays, the Alou Brothers and Jim Hart, none of 'em rates top billing.

2—Orlando Cepeda shows slow recovery from his knee operation. No one who has to HOP, SKIP AND JUMP, to first base, has any right to be in the lineup in the first place. And whoever thinks a fellow with a crippled knee can get the proper leverage for batting purposes?

3—Hal Lanier, great young rookie second baseman, read in the papers where he would be played regularly, even if he batted .050. He knows now that was a lot of boiled air.

4—Tom Haller, the great Giant catching prospect, so often compared to Yankee Bill Dickey, is now in the throes of a battle to keep Jack Hiatt, the rookie, from replacing him. Tom is certainly "down" and pressing. Naturally he looks bad.

5—Jose Pagan, at times spectacular, has lapses unbecoming a major league infielder. He's a jumping-jack shortstop and lately never seems able to be in the right spot at the right time. His weak hitting can be absorbed if his fielding improves but the club can't expect to go anywhere with a second base combination that is so-so at the bat, and uncertain at the shortstop spot.

6—Jim Hart's hitting is improving and as the season wears on he'll be a better defensive performer than he has shown to date.

7—Harvey Kuenn's hitting so far has been disappointing. The guy has stung the ball but it always seems that somebody on the other side is right there to rob him of deserving hits. Matty Alou, used for defensive purposes, should be given a chance to bat against lefthanders. He might surprise.

8—Jack Sanford proved himself fit and ready yesterday when he went nine innings before bowing out in the 10th to pinch hitter Matty Alou. Jack never looked better but was over anxious and too cautious as he neared the finish. It'll take some doing to get him out of rotation but he must be spared the every fourth day assignment expected of rotating flingers.

9—The carry-over rule of former Manager Al Dark in ordering beanballing of pitchers who hit Giant batters is regrettable. Who has Don Drysdale seriously hurt in over nine years of pitching? In trying to brush back Willie Mays, Don frightens the fans more than he does Willie.

10—Rules regarding tinkering with playing fields should be enforced. An accident like that which happened to Tommy Davis could be blamed on making the infield harder and faster. Why not regulate every park and cut out drying up or wetting it to favor the home club.

How Shoemaker 'Stole' Kentucky Derby

By KELSO STURGEON

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — His name is Willie Shoemaker but they should change it to Jesse James for the way he stole the 91st Kentucky Derby with an almost forgotten colt, Lucky Debonair.

Shoemaker, often not at his best in the Kentucky Derby, outrode, out-foxed and out-thought every jockey, owner and trainer Saturday in the 1¼-mile classic to gain, what was to him, his greatest victory.

"Shoemaker was great," said Lucky Debonair's trainer, Frank Catrone. "If he can ride like this and get that many breaks in the rest of them, it will be all right. This guy just out-thought everybody in there." there."

"It was about time," Shoemaker said, "I was getting tired of getting beat in this race."

"That guy was a real sneak," said Mrs. Mary Keim, who saddled Mr. Pak in the Derby. "Shoe is a sly one and I know that every jockey in this race knew what he was going to do, but he still pulled it off."

Bill Winfrey, who trained the favored Bold Lad — who finished a puzzling, disappointing 10th — and second place finished Dapper Dan, agreed with Mrs. Keim.

"I don't want to take anything away from the winner," Winfrey said. "But Shoe was sitting in the cat bird seat all the way."

"I didn't give Shoemaker any instructions before the race," Catrone said. "I knew he'd done a lot of studying and knew what he had to do."

Actually things were made a lot easier for Shoemaker when Flag Raiser, who usually starts like a bolt of lightning, didn't break so fast. This meant that Lucky Debonair wouldn't have to work too hard to catch him.

Saving his horse's power, Shoemaker moved Lucky Debonair into perfect position coming out of the first turn. His strategy now was not to push Flag Raiser, who was on the front end, too hard and thus keep the pace slow.

When they hit the final eighth he turned his horse loose.

In four strides Lucky Debonair was two lengths in front and full of run. Shoemaker went to the whip and held on to nip fast-closing Dapper Dan by a neck for the $112,000 first place money.

Tom Rolfe finished third, Native Charger fourth, Hail to All fifth, Mr. Pak sixth and Swift Ruler seventh. The others in the order were Flag Raiser, Carpenter's Rule, Bold Lad and Narushua.

Shoemaker, who was winning his third Derby, brought Lucky Debonair to the finish line in 2:01 1-5, compared to the track record of 2:00 set last year by Northern Dancer.

Catrone said Lucky Debonair probably will leave Tuesday for the Preakness at Pimlico May 15. If all goes well there, it will be on to the Belmont Stakes, the third jewel of the Triple Crown, at Aqueduct June 5.

Other Derby horses definitely headed for the Preakness are Dapper Dan, Hail to All and Native Charger. Trainer Frank Whiteley Jr., will decide later whether to start Tom Rolfe.

The experts were still puzzled about the performance of the 2-1 favorite, Bold Lad, who stopped cold just before the field hit the stretch and beat only one horse.

"I'm just as confused as you are," Winfred said. "He came out of the race in fine shape but jockey Bill Hartack said he didn't warm up like he did for the Derby Trial last Tuesday.

"I doubt very much if we will start in the Preakness," Winfred said. "We are going to give him all the time he needs. . . I just don't know the answer."

The $112,000 Lucky Debonair received from the Derby purse of $154,500 boosted his bankroll to $237,450. As the third choice in the betting, he paid $10.60 and $2.

The race was delayed for one-half hour by a fire that swept through the box seats in the fourth floor of the clubhouse, causing the evacuation of 3,500 of the estimated crowd of 100,000.

GIANTS-DODGERS

Don-Juan Feud Coming To S.F.?

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Nobody was trying to bean anybody, two of the National League's top pitchers insist, but Juan Marichal and Don Drysdale are staying semper paratus if—just if, mind you—there's any deliberate beaning to be done.

The topic of beans, fired by an incident Thursday in a four-game series opener here between the San Francisco Giants and the Los Angeles Dodgers, bubbled to the surface yesterday, when Los Angeles Times sportswriter Frank Finch chronicled a sprightly exchange between the star hurlers.

Finch quoted Giant Marichal as telling him, Dodger Drysdale and the world Saturday:

"Drysdale has hit Felipe Alou, Willie Mays and Orlando Cepeda. I'm not saying he tried deliberately to hit them, but he has too good control to be so far off the plate.

"Next time, if he's pitching against me and he comes close . . . we'll see what happens. He'll get it. And real good, too."

Drysdale was the winning pitcher Thursday as the Dodgers edged the Giants 2-1.

In the eighth inning, Drysdale fired a close one at Willie Mays, which sent Mays diving for the dirt. He then struck out.

When Drysdale came up to bat in the bottom of that inning, Marichal's reliefer, Bo Bolin, hit him in the back and Drysdale walked to first — visibly steaming.

"I haven't backed away yet," Finch quoted Drysdale as saying. "If Marichal throws at me or hits me, he better get me early. If he gets me, I'm going to get four Giants—and they won't be .220 hitters, either."

Finch said Drysdale denied trying to bean Mays, if for no other reason than that it would have put the famed base-stealer on first.

Finch quoted Drysdale as saying:

"I'm leading by one run in the eighth inning and Willie McCovey is coming up next. Over the years McCovey's hit me like he owns me, so am I going to put Mays on base and then let him steal? It would be very difficult to hit Mays, even if you tried. He's too agile."

As for Mays, with typical agility he accused no one of anything, telling Finch:

"All I know, for 14 years there have been some very close ones thrown at me. I don't say any one is throwing to hit me, but if it doesn't stop someone will get badly hurt. . ."

Pitcher rotation put distance between the disputants for the rest of the series. The Giants and Dodgers tangle again in a three - game series starting Friday in San Francisco. Oughta be some interesting games.

Marin Tars Split With Shasta Team

College of Marin nipped Shasta College 4-3 in the first game of a Golden Valley Conference doubleheader Saturday at Albert Field but the Tars got bombed in the nightcap 13-3.

The Tars hit for power in the first game, with Fred Mack and Joe Hebel clouting home runs and John Odetto and Frank Dittle ripping doubles. Mack and Odetto each had a total of three hits and Dan Abballo collected a pair of singles.

Jim Schmidt, a Tar southpaw, did a nifty bit of relief work in the game to save victory for starting hurler Jim Timmell, who allowed only one run through the first eight innings. With two runs already in, two runners on base and no outs, Schmidt was sent in. He recorded two strike outs and the last batter flew out.

In the second game, Shasta walloped one homer, two triples and a pair of doubles to crush Marin. Only extra base hit for the home town Mariners was a double by Bill Brody.

TRACK AND FIELD

West Coast Relays Next On Agenda

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The West Coast Relays this weekend properly shift the track and field accent to the individual with the dual meet season now concluded after the traditional big meets.

Only collegians compete Friday and Saturday at Ratcliffe Stadium, making the results of the past weekend's meets more significant. The AAU won't allow club athletes to compete at the Fresno, Calif. event.

Southern California continued domination of the Pacific Coast college track scene by whipping UCLA 83-62 last Saturday for the 33rd straight victory over the Bruins.

In other traditionals, Oregon won the mile relay in the last event of the day and edged Oregon State 75-70, Stanford spoiled the last dual meet for retiring coach Brutus Hamilton by taking California 87-58 and Washington State rolled over Washington 82-63.

Three of Stanford's 11 firsts were posted by Bud Walsh. The sophomore from Coos Bay, Ore., won the long jump with a leap of 23-5½, the 330 hurdles in 38.2 and the 120 hurdles in 14.8.

Sprinter Larry Questad, the 1963 NCAA 100-yard titlist, won the century in 9.5 and the 220 in meet record time of 21.2.

Jim Hall Smashes Mark At Riverside Speedway

RIVERSIDE (AP) — If Jim Hall hadn't changed his college major from geology to mechanical engineering, who knows?

He probably wouldn't hold the Riverside International Raceway's speed record for distance automobile racing yesterday and be the proud owner of one of the U.S. Road Racing Championship's coveted trophies.

Hall, driving a Chaparral II over a paved 182-mile course, averaged 100.346 miles per hour —besting Parnelli Jones' record of 99.182 m.p.h. set at a distance of 200 miles.

Hall's time for the 70-lap event 1:48.49—a scant 16 seconds faster than that of second place winner Hal Sharp. Both men dipped into prize money — for Hall $2,950, for Sharp $1,500. Both drove Chaparrals and both hail from Midland, Tex.

Hall traces his automobile racing origins to 10 years ago when he was considered something of a rock specialist as a student at California Institute of Technology. He switched his major, though, and has been working with engines and racing cars ever since.

Hall won his trophy in a "drivers' race," co - featured with a "production car" race for stock cars, won by Ken Miles of Hollywood.

Miles averaged 93.60 miles an hour in a Cobra, taking $1,200 in prize money and topping his 1964 mark of 92.55 m.p.h. His time for the 124 - mile, 48-lap event was 1:20.02.

Senators Moving Toward Vote On Reapportionment

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Fighting it to the last, California's state senators moved unhappily today toward a reapportionment vote foreshadowing a historic reshuffling of power in the upper house.

Their hearts weren't in it, for a number of senators are certain to lose their jobs when the U.S. Supreme Court's "one man, one vote" verdict comes to pass in the nation's most populous state.

Leaders planned to open debate tomorrow oon Senate Bill 6, which they predicted can muster enough support to pass to the Assembly by the end of the week.

Then, the 39 senators now in office can turn to a three-man federal district court panel in Los Angeles and report compliance with its order to reapportion by July 1.

Whether the court will go along with the Senate plan is a matter of debate in legislative halls. The bill by Sen. Stephen P. Teale, D-West Point, does give majority control of the Senate to urban areas and for the first time in years places rural interests in a minority in the legislature, as they are in the general population.

Teale's reluctant proposal, however, varies considerably in some instances from the high court's ruling that districts in both houses of state legislatures must be "substantially" equal in population.

Another roadblock in the path of SB6 is the Assembly, where southern urban interests already dominate and Los Angeles County alone has 31 of the 80 assemblymen. Speaker Jesse M. Unruh, D-Los Angeles, and many house members oppose a provision forcing candidates for the 12 Senate seats Los Angeles would get to run countywide — not in restricted individual districts.

As long as the bill is in that shape, Unruh says — and Gov. Brown agrees — a reapportionment plan stands slim chance of the lower house passage needed for enactment.

Sen. Thomas M. Rees, the Democrat who now stands as the lone Los Angeles senator, will propose amendments on the floor to carve up the county into specified districts and eliminate the at-large candidacy provision. His chances for success appeared dim.

Even with all eyes focused on reapportionment, the lawmakers also faced a full calendar of other major problems. Bills on smog, obscenity and drunk driving were ready for votes in the two houses. And the various proposals for new taxes still awaited first hearings, as did Gov. Brown's $4.03 billion record budget.

The Senate wasn't giving in easily to reapportionment on the basis of population—a decision vehemently opposed in the upper house on both practical and philosophical grounds.

The two top upper chamber Democrats, George Miller Jr. of Martinez and President Pro Tem Hugh M. Burns of Fresno, departed Sunday on a trip to Pennsylvania to rally anti-reapportionment forces.

They and Assemblyman John T. Knox, D-Richmond, sought backing for a pending constitutional amendment in Congress that would allow one house of state legislatures to be apportioned on a basis other than people. Financing for their trip — the latest in many made by anti-reapportionment legislators — reportedly came both from public funds and from a business-financed "citizens committee" opposed to redistricting.

As further ammunition, the Senate published a 15-page argument by its longtime secretary, Joseph A. Beek, attacking the Supreme Court's decision. Beek praised the Senate record and its apportionment, and told Californians "Do not delay!" in writing Washington to back the campaign to nullify the court's ruling.

President of the Loma Verde Home Owners Assn. is James R. Simon.

Fairfax Trustees Due Building Plans

Fairfax School iDstrict trustees will review the district building program at a meeting at 7:45 p.m. tomorrow in Manor School.

The board will also discuss a letter to the Fairfax City Council and the county supervisors dealing with the county general plan for parks, recreation and open space.

Novatan To Get Safety Certificate

William G. McCarthy of 643 Plum Street, Novato, has been named to receive a safety award certificate for 10 years driving with Western Greyhound Lines without a recorded accident.

In that time it is esitmated he has covered 350,000 miles of western highway.

Larkspur Home Hit By Blaze

The living room of a house at 348 Via Hidalgo, Larkspur, was gutted by fire Saturday while the occupants, Mr. and Mrs. Byron V. Nichols, were out.

Damage to the room and contents was put at $2,000 by firemen.

Larkspur Fire Department, called to the scene at 4:15 p.m., had to break into the house after a neighbor raised the alarm. The cause is believed to have been a short-circuit in a hair dryer.

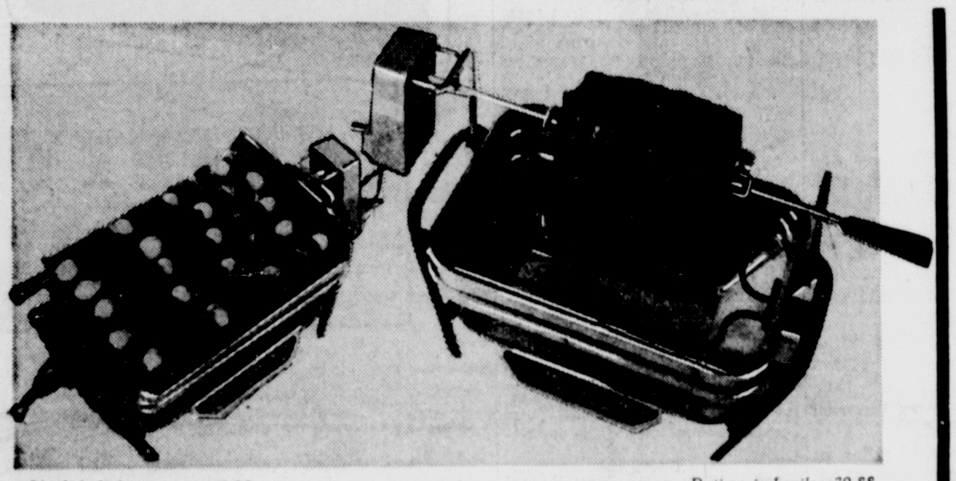

Eighteen firemen had the blaze under control within five minutes.

Status, Affluence Blamed For Shortage Of Sweep, Mop Folk

By CARLO J. SALZANO

WASHINGTON (UIP)—"Wanted: Woman to do housework. Three days a week. Lunch and bus fare furnished. Good pay."

Years ago, such an ad would draw a dozen takers. Today, such jobs go begging.

Now that the lady of the house can afford a maid she can't get one. And the same affluent society has reduced the number of women who once had to sweep and mop for a few cents an hour to supplement the family income.

There are other reasons for the growing gap between supply and demand. Low pay is one. But another important one is "status." An "aura of degradation" has seeped into the field of household employment.

BUT IT doesn't have to be that way, according to the National Committee on Household Employment (NCHE). It is looking for ways to bring employer and employe together, primarily to provide more jobs for needy women.

Director Mary Dublin Keyserling of the Women's Bureau of the Department of Labor, said the committee hopes to stimulate a training program that would help maids earn more money while wiping away the "stigma" attached to domestic service.

"Household workers should get away from the idea that they are servants," Mrs. Keyserling said. "The service they perform is just as important as any other."

With special training, she said, domestics could demand more money and build up "a sense of dignity in this work."

"A little of the entrepreneur on the part of the unemployed woman wouldn't hurt either," Mrs. Keyserling said.

What she had in mind was the possibility of unemployed women tackling the field of household work as a small business venture.

"WHY CAN'T two or three or more trained women team up, each with her own specialty, and form a sort of janitorial service?" she asked. "I would be more inclined to hire a group such as that than bring in a woman with little or no training."

An example of the household specialist sought nowadays is the woman who can cook large quantities of food for the freezer. Another in high demand is the seamstress.

"Special training, not only in cooking and sewing, but in general household work, would go a long way toward improving wages and raising the status of the domestic," Mrs. Keyseling said.

THE PROGRAM the committee hopes to stimulate falls in line with some thoughts expressed by President Johnson last February. He said that despite unemployment at almost 5 per cent, "it often takes weeks to have an appliance or other repair made . . . housewives cannot get the help they seek for work in the home or in the yard . . . and the papers are full of help wanted ads."

LOW WAGE rates and "an attitude that much service work lacks dignity" also were noted by Johnson, Mrs. Keyserling said.

The President said that a job development program "should contribute to raising work standards and to recognition of the importance and value of all service work."

Mrs. Keyserling said she is convinced that in this era of specialization training is the key. Without it, she said, milady will have to be satisfied with the help she's getting or do her own housework.

New Cotton Knit

A new all-cotton stretch knit is practically shrink-proof, according to the manufacturer, Alamac Knitting Mills. In addition to being easy-care, the new knit has a silky look and feel which puts it in the class of fashion fabric.

WASHINGTON—Many jobs for women to do housework go begging today. Years ago a dozen takers would have been drawn to an ad for a domestic employee. Mary Dublin Keyserling, Director of the Women's Bureau of the Dept. of Labor, said that the National Committee on Household Employment (NCHE) hopes to stimulate a training program that would help "Hazel" earn more money while wiping away the stigma attached to domestic service. ## ALMANAC

Today is Monday, May 3, the 123rd day of 1965 with 242 to follow.

The moon is approaching its first quarter. The morning stars are Saturn and Mars. The evening stars are Mars and Jupiter.

American journalist Jacob Riis was born on this day in 1849.

On this day in history:

In 1865, the body of assassinated President Abraham Lincoln arrived back in his home town of Springfield, Ill., from the nation's capital.

In 1944, synthetic quinine was produced in a Harvard University laboratory from coal-tar products.

In 1948, the U.S. Supreme Court forbade the states to enforce agreements that bind owners not to sell property to racial and religious minorities.

WINNING BRIDGE

Appearance Of Dummy Stimulates Game Thought

Getting inside a bridge player's mind is an easy job if you have a fine enough microscope.

You need a bridge hand to start the thoughts up.

Opening lead — ♠ Q

"My partner is a coward," the average declarer thinks as he stares at the dummy. "He should jump to four notrump instead of bidding three clubs. We'd get to seven notrump instead of just six. Will I tell him off!

HAND OVER

While declarer is planning what to say when the hand is over, the hand is over.

Declarer wins the first trick in dummy with the ace of spades and leads the deuce of diamonds, and that is the end. South is down one.

South has to switch speeches. Instead of saying that the odds were 7 to 1 in favor of a grand slam, he must complain about the horrible breaks in both of the key suits.

SAFETY PLAY

An expert would not waste his time planning a denunciation of his partner. "What can go wrong?" the expert wonders, as he plans the play. "Can I make sure of five diamond tricks even against the worst possible break?

"If all five diamonds are at my left, I'm all right if I begin the diamonds by leading a low card toward dummy. If West takes his jack, dummy gets the ten later. If West plays low, the ten wins a trick immediately.

AT RIGHT

"If all five diamonds are at my right, dummy's ten loses to the jack. But later I can lead the other diamond from dummy and take a finesse with the ight.

So the expert wins the first trick with the king of spades and leads a low diamond at the second trick.

Maybe the secret is that the expert thinks about the hand instead of what he will say to his partner.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with one club, you respond one diamond and he bids one spade.

It is again up to you, holding:

♠ Q J 10 7
♡ Q 10 4
◆ J 9 7 6 5

Answer: Bid two spades.

Game is unikely, but possible. In any case, you can afford this mild raise. Partner should not seek game unless he has a very good hand.

New Data On Lower Deck Makes It Sound Favorable

The latest proposal for a second deck on the Golden Gate Bridge is eye-catching, especially because of some remarkable conclusions drawn by the engineers who are proposing the lower deck.

Engineer Norman C. Raab and Tudor Engineering have produced statistics, which, if true, would throw a new and highly favorable light on the double-decking proposal.

Thus far, one of the main objections to a second deck has been that the added dead weight would cut into the safety margin and jeopardize the life of the span.

Another argument was that the bridge capacity would be increased by only a small percentage. And by the time the lower deck was ready for use, traffic would have once again reached the saturation point for both decks.

Given those conditions, it made considerable sense to forego a second deck and concentrate instead on a second crossing with rapid transit facilities, even if it will take 20 years and a half billion dollars to build.

Now comes the proposal by Raab and Tudor Engineering. First of all, they contend that enough dead weight can be trimmed so that even with the addition of a lower deck, the overall weight will be LESS than it is now.

Furthermore, minor design changes in the existing towers will make them more resistant to wind so that the span will be safer than it is now.

The lower deck will be as wide as the upper, with five full lanes for both cars and trucks. Each deck will be one way. Bridge capacity will be doubled, says Raab.

This double-decking can be accomplished in about four years at a cost of some $30 million. Bridge revenues could finance the project.

Widening the highway approaches to the bridge, both on the Marin and the San Francisco side, is a problem. However, highway officials contend that the problem is nothing insurmountable.

In fact, the Marin approaches could be improved and a new Waldo tunnel added for perhaps $20 million, according to one horseback guess.

This preliminary information, if proved accurate, brings a second deck within the realm of possibility.

The ultimate solution, of course, continues to be a second crossing (under, through or over water) with rapid transit facilities.

But in the interim, if the bridge capacity can be doubled, with less overall weight and with more safety, then a second deck certainly merits serious consideration.

Goodwill To The Deserving

Goodwill Industries of San Francisco has been quietly giving help to the handicapped of Marin, San Mateo and San Francisco since 1916.

Goodwill's 128 sheltered workshops across the country give on-the-job training to disabled men and women and pay them while learning.

To keep the workshops operating full time requires mountains of furniture, clothing and appliances.

This week (May 2 to 8) is National Goodwill Week. We take the occasion to urge those who have usable furniture, clothing or appliances to contact Goodwill.

Here is a deserving organization which is trying to help the handicapped help themselves.

SACRAMENTO SCENE

Not Whether, But How Much Is Year's Biggest Tax Riddle

By EDWIN S. CAPPS

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Long before the 1965 session of the California Legislature began, its members generally agreed that, during this year, it would not be a question of whether new taxes were needed, but how much?

This still is a paramount question. When the lawmakers finally come to grips with the tax legislation in a couple of weeks, most of the debate is expected to be over the amount of new revenues needed.

THE LEGISLATURE has a wide range of plans from which to choose. Most ambitious proposal—in fact, the most ambitious tax proposal ever presented to a California Legislature—is that of Assemblyman Nicholas C. Petris, D-Oakland, and Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh, D-Inglewood. It would boost annual state tax levies by some $1.1 billion a year.

The Petris-Unruh proposal would involve a 1-cent increase in sales tax, an increase in cigarette taxes from 3 to 8 cents per package, a doubling of personal income taxes, a property transfer tax, and other lesser increases.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown's proposals are much more modest, including the property transfer tax, the cigarette tax increase, and sizable boosts in personal income taxes. Both the Unruh-Petris plan and Brown's plan call for withholding of income taxes (with Brown proposing forgiveness of half of 1965 taxes and the assemblymen suggesting forgiving all of 1965 taxes).

OF ALL THE TAXES being discussed and proposed, the cigarette tax hike would appear to be most acceptable and should be easiest to enact.

Unruh said he felt the package had to be considered as a package, and thus, would not vote for just a sales tax increase.

"I wouldn't vote even for the cigarette tax, if that's the only tax that we are going to pass," he said.

Not everyone sees it the way Unruh does. His counterpart in the upper house, Sen. Hugh M. Burns, president pro tempore, said he would prefer increasing taxes only enough to balance Brown's "bare bones" budget for 1965-66—a $4-billion-plus spending program. This could be done merely by increasing the cigarette tax.

Burns said also he is not impressed with the argument that taxes should not be raised in an election year, such as next year.

He said there is a fallacy in the fear that election-year tax increases are dangerous for incumbent legislators seeking re-election. Most taxes, he noted, don't take effect until the year after they're enacted. Thus income tax increases passed this year would have their full impact just before the primary election next year, while taxes passed in 1966 wouldn't be felt until 1967, a non-election year.

New Yorker Came Here For Beauty

In recent weeks, two subjects of deep concern to Bay Area residents have received extensive coverage in your pages: Marincello and bay fill. Perhaps it might serve local interests to heed a distant, yet concerned voice, the editorial page of the New York Times. ### 'Rum Runner' Was Sea Queen

Editor, Independent-Journal:

F. M. Anthony's photo on page 30 of Monday's (April 26) I-J of the "Rum Runners' Special" is perhaps a more romantic picture title, but the hulk on the shore at Inverness brings back memories to me of the Sea Queen as she was then called.

Back in 1924 while attending my first Boy Scout Camp, located at the time in Second Valley at Inverness, the Sea Queen was to a small boy a wonderful ship. Especially if one lived in Napa County far away from the sea.

An epic voyage, past the breakers at the mouth of the bay to a point near the entrance of the bay where the water was crystal clear. We then hiked over the ridge to Bird Rock (at least that's what we were told was the name of the rocks offshore). After a chilling dip in the ocean we hiked back to the bay and boarded the Sea Queen for the voyage back to Inverness.

She was also used to take people to Shell Beach and back to Inverness.

As far as her being used as a Rum Runner, well, maybe, for she carried about 35 to 40 Boy Scouts and their leaders. I'd rather not think of that for her.

Wolfe Grade Plan Vote No Surprise

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The 5-0 vote of the Board of Supervisors Monday (April 26) night, in favor of reinstating the Wolfe Grade Extension in the Master Plan, thereby reversing their previous stand, came as no surprise.

In fact, it reminded me of an old story concerning the politician who had changed his views and was being congratulated by a colleague who said, "I'm glad you saw the light!"

"I didn't see the light," came the terse reply, "I felt the heat."

Another View On Bay Filling

Editor, Independent-Journal:

According to your editorial of April 20, entitled "Bay Bill Shouldn't Cripple Shipping, Hamper Dredging," the paper has seen fit, for reasons of its own, to change the meaning and the purpose of SB 309—McAteer, which bill would control the filling in of our tidelands and shores.

This editorial makes some ridiculous statements, such as a permit would be needed to replace defective piling on wharves and docks.

It also stated that commercial navigation in the Bay Area would be throttled, due to the lack of tidelands to place dredged material from the ship channel dredging, also a ridiculous statement.

It has always been the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers' function, and under their jurisdiction in maintenance of the ship channels. They have no problem in disposing of the dredged material in deep water.

At present, and in the planning stage, are large areas where tidelands are to be filled, such as San Rafael Bay....

If this bill is delayed or stopped . . . we will end up with only the ship channels clear. The rest of the Bay will be filled up by the developers for more building sites.

A good example of how filling of tidelands can ruin our Bay and shoreline is the Paradise Cay development off Paradise Drive....

In a few more years, we will be lucky to launch a rowboat on account of mud shoaling Paradise Cay.

MOVIE DIRECTOR Mark Robson, shooting a picture in India, needed a troupe of gypsies for one sequence but was told by a native assistant that he'd never persuade them to appear. "They're unbelievably superstitious," explained the assistant, and will not be photographed." Nevertheless, when Robson got around to filming the sequence, there was a whole gaggle of gypsies, their progeny, and a train of their chicks, goats, sheep, and pack-laden mules parading contentedly in front of the cameras.

"How did you ever talk those gypsies into being photographed?" marveled the wide-open-mouthed assistant.

"The subject never was discussed," said Robson with a grin. "I simply hired their livestock and pack mules. They just strung along themselves to safeguard their property."

Congress Should Not Wipe Out Court's Reapportionment Ruling

WASHINGTON — The Dirksen amendment, which would mute the Supreme Court decision that state legislatures be apportioned on a population basis, seems an unwise and backward step.

Sen. Everett Dirksen's plan to overrule the court's reapportionment decisions would permit a majority in any state to give some citizens enlarged voting power and others reduced voting power in one of the two houses of any legislature. This is the effect of apportioning one house on the basis of "factors other than population."

FURTHER—and worse—the Dirksen amendment would make it impossible for a majority of the voters of a state ever to change the situation if they wanted to.

Two questions go to the heart of the matter:

1. What is the one political trend which all conservatives, most moderates, and many others want to see arrested and reversed?

The answer is the massive and mounting trend to center more and more political power in Washington.

2. Is there anything which will stop this trend?

ONLY ONE THING — more representative, more responsive, more modern state legislatures prepared to deal with the whole range of social, economic and urban problems which have caused cities to turn to Washington.

Charles S. Rhyne, past president of the American Bar Assn. and a specialist in legislative reapportionment, puts the case accurately when he says:

"State legislatures have shirked their responsibilities in meeting the social, economic and political needs of the people. For the past 30 years and more the people have bypassed state legislatures and have turned to Washington for solutions to one problem after another: housing, mass transportation, public works, health, airports, highways, crime prevention, education, poverty and on ad infinitum.

"STATES TODAY are largely administrative provinces of the federal government in carrying out federal-aid programs. The vacuum created by state legislative inaction has been filled by congressional action."

The central reason why state legislatures have been unresponsive to public needs is because they have been unrepresentative of the electorate. The fewest voters have elected the most legislators and most voters have elected the fewest legislators. Some rural voters have votes that are worth 2 to 1, as opposed to 1,000 to 1 for city dwellers.

The Dirksen amendment would arrest the most needed political reform in the U.S., that of the badly malapportioned state legislatures. It would vastly reduce hopes of ever arresting the flow of political power to Washington.

DR. ROBERT G. DIXON, professor of law at the George Washington University law school and a distinguished scholar in this field, opposes part of the amendment which would "give a state carte blanche to put one house of the legislature on a mixed representation basis" and keep it that way until a majority of sitting legislators was willing to make a change.

"This," he says, "would open the way to a further political freeze, and I am afraid the slogan 'SOS'—translated as 'Save Our Seats'—would carry the day."

Dr. Dixon favors what he calls "the middle way," which is to permit a state to use a "mixed representation system in one house" on approval of a majority of voters, with a chance to change the system every 10 years by popular vote.

I find it hard to believe that there is merit in empowering the states to give voters unequal treatment. But of one thing I am sure. Nothing can do more to erase all hope of reversing the steady flow of power to Washington than to hold back the urgently needed reapportionment of the state legislatures.

INSIDE WASHINGTON

Capitol Police Ready For Student Sit-Ins

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — Organized students planning sit-ins and lie-ins in the national Capitol this week, against U. S. policy in Viet Nam, will be forcibly removed and arrested.

Speaker John McCormack, D-Mass., has ordered "extra police measures" for this purpose.

UNDER THE LAW, demonstrations on Capitol Hill are barred unless expressly authorized by the speaker. McCormack is flatly opposed to the contemplated turbulent, publicity-seeking student protests.

These secret plans were formulated at a series of meetings following the march on Washington earlier this month under auspices of the Students for a Democratic Society. Some 15,000 students from the East and Midwest participated in that affair.

THIS IS PART of a "civil disobedience" campaign to be staged in several large cities this week. Aim of these noisy events is to arouse public sentiment against bombing North Viet Nam and for the withdrawal of U. S. forces from South Viet Nam.

The Students for a Democratic Society is successor of the Inter-collegiate Socialist Society organized in 1905. SDS claims a membership of some 1,500 with chapters on 41 college campuses.

Its constitution describes it as consisting of "liberals and radicals, activists and scholars, students and faculty, united to work toward a society in which the people have control of the decisions that affect them and the resources on which they are dependent."

PAUL BOOTH, national director of SDS, presided over secret meetings which decided on the "civil disobedience" demonstrations in various cities, particularly on Capitol Hill.

It was also determined to put on a "national teach-in" in St. Mark's Episcopal Church, in southeast Washington, on May 15. Faculty members from a number of campuses are being recruited for this affair.

Extensive arrangements are being made to stage student civil disobedience demonstrations in selected cities "all summer long."

PLANS FOR THESE affairs call for sit-ins and lie-ins in public buildings, obstructing major thoroughfares, and marching with or without permits. All these tactics will be attempted in Washington, where apparently mass arrests will be deliberately courted.

A top government official recently told congressional leaders:

"The outbreak of student agitation and lawlessness at the University of California, and the demonstration in Washington earlier this month, in which numerous Communists were involved, stem directly from the Kremlin global plan. They follow the usual Communist pattern. This is a new sixth column operation of the Kremlin."

Civic Center Should Get A Horse; Schools Office Could Be Stable

With all your paneled chambers, your long black robes and your leather-bound volumes, there is nothing which dignifies the law as much as a policeman on horseback.

Yet, there are fewer and fewer mounted police each year. It just shows you what is happening to things these days.

County supervisors authorized a mounted sheriff's deputy at Bolinas during the summer months, but the county could have a full - time mounted officer.

The supervisors are expected to pass up this opportunity during budget deliberations in June. One of the requests on the proposed budget is a three-wheel motorcycle for the deputy sheriff who guards the Civic Center.

George J. Reuss, who is security deputy up at Camelot, says the three-wheeler is needed to chalkstick the tires of cars parked in time zones and to police the grounds of the center.

These are undoubtedly legitimate needs, but they do not have to be filled by a device that goes put-put-put. They could just as well be filled by a horse.

When that motorcycle goes put-put-put through the Civic Center underpass, the sound will echo up through the light wells with a staccato that will shake every county office and make every county worker look up from his work.

"There goes George."

"Yes, indeed, there goes George."

NOW, WHAT SHOULD happen is an authorization for a horse instead of a motorcycle. Initial cost would be much less and certainly a little hay now and then is not going to drain the county coffers.

Deputy Reuss says he does not care either way. As a matter of fact, he owns two horses himself and is an accomplished horseman.

He only raises one question.

"Where are you going to keep it?"

Fortunately, there is a very simple answer to this question.

The county schools office will be moving to a warehouse in Corte Madera early next year, leaving plenty of space to stable a horse—even two, four or six horses.

The southern hill puts the schools office on ground level, so ingress and egress is no problem.

A side benefit which is obvious is that the manure from the stables could be shoveled directly onto the many planters in the Civic Center.

You see, even after the school people leave, we will be able to continue with our enrichment program.

The horses themselves should be caparisoned so they are in keeping with the design of the Frank Lloyd Wright center. Architect Aaron Green might be persuaded to help with the design here.

I would prefer medieval trappings so as to strengthen the King Arthur illusion of the center.

But there is really no sense in getting carried away with this idea. The supervisors will never go for it.

Put-put-put.

SUPERVISORS, by the way, get some strange ideas. You have probably read that they are thinking of increasing their numbers.

There is a long and sound argument for changing the size of the board. Listening to them all day, as we reporters do, makes a long enough argument for anyone.

So, when there was this talk of an amendment to the government code to make it possible to change the numbers on the board, I naturally assumed it meant cutting the five-man board down to a more workable three-man board.

But this is not what the amendment says. It says that the number can be increased to seven or even nine. There is no mention at all of reducing the number.

Can you imagine? Nine supervisors? Wow!

This was even too much for Marin's supervisors. They voted to recommend against nine.

But the board did see a seven-man division, and the consequent seven supervisorial districts as a good means of curing the redistricting issue. Supervisor Thomas T. Storer particularly saw it as a means of getting an equitable division of his vast Fourth (West Marin) District.

The trouble is that this is not the right direction for solving the district problem. The perfect answer to that is one supervisor and one district. Everything after that is just compromise.

But the idea of a one-man board will probably never catch hold. You see, there is this big meeting room up at the Civic Center with a long, long desk for the supervisors.

ONE MAN sitting at that desk all by himself would probably get extremely lonely.

He might even end up talking to himself. Then the board meetings would last forever.

20 YEARS AGO

Marin Junior College basketball team bowed to a superior San Francisco Junior College team, 59 to 38. Marin was handicapped by the loss of Frank Ratto, out with a broken ankle.

On recommendation of State Highway Engineer George T. McCoy, the state highway commission declined to construct a proposed Sausalito freeway approach to the Golden Gate Bridge.

Preliminary work for San Rafael's newest subdivision got under way. Lloyd Grandi of Marvelous Marin Realty and roofing contractor George Davenport were developers of the tract. The 62 homes on Fifth Avenue west of K Street were to sell in the $7,000 to $8,500 price range.

Approximately 1,000 enthusiastic high school fistic fans jammed the Tamalpais High gymnasium to witness seven boxing bouts and thereby enriched the Lettermen's Club treasury by some $200.

A county-owned fairground was in prospect as the board of supervisors gave a nod to the request of the Marin County Farm Bureau to consider purchase of property and take other legal steps necessary to organize a county fair commission.

ART BUCHWALD

What Ever Became Of Timid Art? Why, He Went Down And Bought . . .

WASHINGTON — The automobile is becoming the No. 1 virility symbol in the United States. Not only are they putting tigers in people's tanks as well as the back seat, but the advertisements keep hinting that you're really not much of a man unless you're driving a Beep Beep or some other fast sports car.

A RECENT television commercial showed a sickly-looking fellow who was left out of everything until be bought a certain type of car. Suddenly his entire personality changed and girls were beating down the windshield to get close to him.

It was a very compelling commercial and so I decided to try it out. I went down to a Beep Beep dealer and asked him if I could try out the car for the afternoon. If I liked it, I'd buy it. He said okay.

"Where's the safety belt?" I asked.

"When you drive a Beep Beep," the man said, "you live dangerously."

I drove the car out of the garage and pretty soon my chest started to swell and my muscles started to tremble.

I LOOKED IN the mirror and could see a sneer on my face and danger in my eyes.

I put it into second. Suddenly I heard a siren behind me. The cop made me pull over.

"You were doing 30 in a 25-mile zone," he said. "Do you have any explanation?"

"I guess I'm just a tiger," I replied, chortling.

"Well, here you are, tiger," the cop said. "I'll see you down at the jungle."

I took the ticket and drove over to the Georgetown Drug-store, which is usually swinging around three o'clock on a Saturday afternoon, and parked it right in front by the door.

THEN I SAT and waited. A blonde came out and looked at the car. She came over as I expected, but instead of getting in, she said, "Would you mind moving so I can get my car out?"

I pulled up a little and she pulled out. I started back when a brunette in a tight knitted suit came over and said, "Have you seen a little boy of six with red hair?"

"No, lady. I'm just here waiting for somebody to break down my windshield."

She walked away in a huff.

I turned up the radio, figuring music never hurt anything, and sure enough, a girl came strutting by with a little French poodle.

THE POODLE STOPPED by a white-walled tire and started sniffing.

"He wouldn't," I said to the girl.

"He's been trained to," she replied.

Some of the tiger went out of me.

I started to doubt the commercial when a gorgeous girl in a mink coat came rushing up.

"Are you going somewhere?" she said breathlessly.

"Sure, honey. Where do you want to go?"

Her eyes blazed, and she pointed behind her. "My husband's looking for a parking place." She walked over to her husband and said something to him.

He got out of his car, all six-foot-three of him, and I decided it was time to move on.

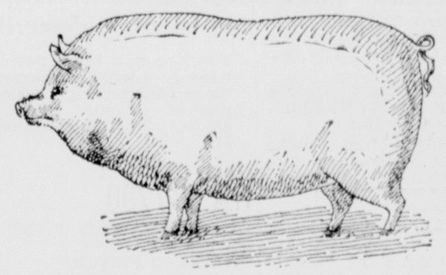

"I'm pulling out," I shouted. "Just like your wife asked me to do."

I SPED OFF before he could catch me and took the car back to the dealer.

"Well, how did it go, tiger?" the salesman wanted to know.

I winked at him. "Great, fella, but at this rate I'll die before my time."

Yankees helped raise him—Peace Corps volunteers who taught the people of La Vega, Dominican Republic, to raise bigger, fatter pigs.

Of course, there are easier jobs. But where else can you be involved in the creation of a Yankee pig, or a Yankee potato . . . or a Yankee friend?

Sound like your kind of work? Get involved.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Cancer Of Large Intestine Is One Of No. 1 Killers In United States

VAN DELLEN

Cancer of the large intestine and rectum is the No. 1 internal malignancy in the United States. The incidence is the same in both sexes and three out of four could be saved except for a common human failing. It is located in an area about which many are too embarrassed to discuss or have examined. As with other cancers, the key is early detection and prompt treatment.

Warning signals are a change in normal bowel habits, such as diarrhea or constipation. Others develop bleeding from the rectum, or abdominal pain and cramps. An examination is suggested when symptoms last more than two weeks.

LESIONS MAY resemble a cauliflower-like mass that extends into the bowl and ulcerates or bleeds. Others begin in the wall of the large intestine and completely encircle and obstruct the bowel or rectum. When viewed under the X-ray, the lesion looks as though a tight string was tied around the bowel. This explains why changes in bowel habits are usual manifestations.

For many years the American Cancer society has conducted an extensive educational program on early detection of cancer of the colon and rectum. They advocate an annual proctoscopic examination after age 40 especially among those with a family history of the condition. A procto, as the examination is called, is done with a tube that has a light on one end and a magnifying glass on the other. It is passed gently into the rectum and lower colon, enabling the physician to inspect the walls for indication of cancer. Early lesions can be detected and biopsied within a short period of time.

THE PROCTO is important because 60 per cent of all bowel cancers are located in the rectum and many others are within view of the proctoscope. The best chance for cure is via surgery. In many instances the tumorous segment of the bowel is cut out and the two open ends are sewed together. In others, the rectum is closed off and a permanent opening is made in the lower abdominal wall (colostomy).

MARRIAGE POSSIBILITIES

L.T. writes: I'm an attractive widow of 57 and might want to remarry someday. I find my chances are slim because there is a preponderance of women everywhere I go.

REPLY

Try Alaska or Hawaii. Both of these states have a surplus of men over women. Alaska has 57 per cent male and 43 per cent female. The percentage for Hawaii is 53.4 and 46.6, respectively.

SCALP SECRETIONS

Mrs. D. writes: Is it true that adults cannot suffer from ringworm of the scalp because they have oil in the hair?

REPLY

The type of ringworm of the scalp encountered in children is not common in adults but the reason is unknown. The most plausible theory is that the scalp secretions of grown-ups contain a hormone not present in the scalp of children.

MEDITATION

M.C. writes: I'm awfully tense and would like to try yoga. Can you give me details on this treatment?

REPLY

Yoga is an ancient form of relaxation and is part of Hinduism. May I suggest that you go to the Public library for a book on the subject?

HUNGER AND HALITOSIS

Mrs. G. writes: Is hunger and an empty stomach a possible cause of bad breath?

REPLY

No.

Early Bird Is Off To A Good Start

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — The stationary Early Bird satellite, available for continuous transmission between North America and Europe, opened a new era in people-to-people relations yesterday with a one-hour inaugural telecast.

Early Bird is the world's first commercial communications satellite, so satisfaction over the generally successful inaugural broadcast was shared not only by viewers of the networks but especially by stockholders in the Communications Satellite Corp.

There were mishaps. The narration from Europe was marred steadily by an echo-back. And several times technical difficulties made the picture briefly unavailable — one of these times resulting in a total failure to pick up a look at the new Astrodome stadium in Houston. Still, these were only occasional mishaps, and the fantastic potential of the Early Bird system was not lost on millions of viewers.

In the past, satellite television broadcasts across the oceans have been generally possible only for relatively brief periods — when, say, Telstar was in precisely the right position during its orbital schedule. Early Bird, however, orbits at about the same speed as the earth, thereby giving it the effect of being "stationary" and making it steadily available for telephone and television communications.

The program started with a Mariachi band in Mexico City, which is a fine way to start anything. Thereafter, the hour included most of the events previously announced to the public, among them a heart-valve operation in Houston, watched by doctors who could ask questions from a conference in Switzerland — and by viewers on both sides of the Atlantic. There was also an exchange of "wanted persons" information by the FBI, Scotland Yard and the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

The networks have estimated the potential viewing audience of the program in the United States, Canada, Mexico and Europe at about 300 million persons.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: Problems of the elderly are the subject of a one-hour discussion by experts on NBC-TV's "Today" program Wednesday.

GREETING CENTER—With the close of World War II, Hamilton Field became one of the focal points for the arrival of dignitaries from all over the world to the United Nations Conference in San Francisco. This scene of the flight line taken about that time, shows the planes that were used then and the 1939 and 1940 model cars which were still in use long after the war.

Music Chest's Drive Extended

Town Council To Hear Rec Fund Appeal

Corte Madera town councilmen will hear a new request for funds to operate the Larkspur-Corte Madera Joint Recreation Commission program for the latter half of 1965 at the council meeting at 7:30 p.m. today at the town hall.

The council will also see drawings of the proposed second fire house, to be located on town-owned land on Paradise Drive. The plans include provisions for future expansion for eventual use of a fulltime crew there.

Funds for the firehouse were included in a $200,000 bond issue approved last year.

Plans for widening Paradise Drive from the Northwestern Pacific Railroad tracks to El Camino Drive will be presented.

An ordinance tightening restrictions on signs will be up for adoption, and one changing residence requirements for town employees may be introduced.

Planners Due Arguments On

San Rafael planning commissioners will listen to further arguments tomorrow night of Radio Station KTIM and communications firm San Rafael Hill Inc., both of whom want a permit for a transmitting tower atop San Rafael Hill.

KTIM manager Hugh Turner said his station's tower, 105 feet high, would be used to boost its FM transmitting power. The communications firm would like to place a 48 foot tower on the same parcel of land.

Commissioners have asked that property owners in the area of the proposed tower be notified of the meeting at 7:30 p.m. in the council chamber of the San Rafael City Hall.

Hamilton Field Busy At Close Of War II

(Thies is fourth in a series of five articles on the history of Hamilton Air Force Base, written for the 30th anniversary of its dedication, May 12).

By THERON A. NEWELL

With the close of World War II, Hamilton Field remained a place of great activity. Wounded were still arriving. Air crews that had been sent to the Pacific theater of war were returned to Hamilton with no notice.

When the victorious nations turned their attention to forming a world organization aimed at keeping this peace, to replace the defunct League of Nations, San Francisco was chosen as the site for the organizational meeting. Hamilton Field, as the closest military landing field, was arrival point for many world leaders attending the United Nations conference.

When President Harry Truman arrived for the conference, Hamilton had the job of handling 180 press and radio representatives who were on hand for his arrival. The president visited the evacuation hospital as his first official duty on the base.

Representatives of every nation with delegates to the United Nations Conference came to Hamilton Field to meet the president.

Realignment of the military branches brought the U.S. Air Force into being as successor to the Army Air Forces on Sept. 18, 1947. The name of Hamilton Field was then changed to Hamilton Air Force Base.

The 78th Fighter Group, consisting of the 82nd, 83rd and 84th Fighter Interceptor Squadrons, was assigned to Hamilton in November 1948.

The 82nd Fighter Squadron was later transferred to Larson Air Force Base, Wash., and the 83rd Fighter Squadron to Paine Field, Wash. This left only the 84th Fighter Interceptor Squadron at Hamilton.

With the personnel at the base being more stable, but still much too large for the quarters on the base, the Air Force turned its attention to permanent housing for those assigned to Hamilton.

Raphale Village was acquired by the base and 505 housing units constructed there under the Wherry Housing Act. The Capehart Act gave the base another 550 housing units which were constructed on the base.

With the addition of this housing, Hamilton assumed the look that we know today.

Custom Made Uniform For Viet Reporter

By HAL BOYLE

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — This is a strange war indeed.

It is the first war I've been in which a reporter has to get his uniform custom made by a Chinese tailor.

So far, the government doesn't officially issue combat clothing to reporters nor will it sell it to them. They sometimes can buy it, however, on what is euphemistically known as "the gray market."

DEN OF THIEVES

The leader of the den of thieves to whom I was referred has his headquarters in what looks like an abandoned warehouse, just as do American gangs on television programs.

When I explained what I wanted, the chief thief, who shall remain nameless — in fact he said he preferred it that way — offered me all the opium I wanted, but said he was all out of government uniforms.

"This has been a very bad month for stealing," he explained.

So I went to see Luong, the Chinese tailor, who is known as the fastest needle in the Far East. In 36 hours he whipped together a bush jacket and trousers that made a fellow look like the white hunter on an African safari.

TOO LONG

"Luong, you made the pants too long," I objected.

"Not too long," he lied with a bland saffron smile.

"After first monsoon rain, pants fit just right."

My quest for a combat cap proved to be the best free entertainment of the day. Apparently no one with a size 7½ head had been in town for some time.

Grinning crowds collected in every shop and broke into giggles as the proprietors fruitlessly perched Vietnamese jungle caps atop my dome. As fast as they were put on they fell to the floor.

Giving the hat search up as a bad job, I stomped off again to the gray market. This time I managed to buy a used pair of boots about two sizes too large and a weathered rucksack which some French Legionnaire must have dropped at the battle of Dien Bien Phu back in 1954.

POST EXCHANGE

My last port of call was the post exchange. No American ever goes off to a war zone without a farewell call at the PX for a box of chocolate candy bars, some boxes of hard candy, a pushbutton can of shaving lather and a bottle of insect repellent.

The post exchange here is stocked with an assortment of goodies not particularly useful in jungle fighting. They include hi-fi sets, classical phonograph records, expensive cameras, and several sets of golf clubs. Just looking at them made me feel homesick. Then I saw something that really fascinated me. It was a bean bag priced at 85 cents. I bought it. At that price I felt it was too good a bargain to pass up, and I thought it would be nice to be the only guy in the war with a bean bag of his very own.

Besides, it may come in handy if I need something to throw at the unfriendly Viet Cong. I'd rather play bean bag with them than any other game I can think of.

U.S. May Protest

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States may seek a meeting of the Military Armistice Commission in Panmunjom to protest the shooting exchange last Wednesday between North Korean fighters and an American RB47 off North Korea's coast. State Department press officer Robert J. McCloskey said Friday two MIGs fired first without provocation and that the U.S. plane was exercising a traditional right to operate freely over the seas.
